

MEMBER'S MANUAL

The Law Society
of British Columbia

AMENDMENT PAGES

2015: No. 2 June

Highlights

Law Society Rules: In April, the Benchers adopted revised and consolidated Law Society Rules, which come into effect July 1, 2015. The primary objectives of the revision and consolidation are to:

- re-number all rules and subrules in consecutive whole number order to eliminate decimal numbering;
- add headings to cross-references to aid recognition;
- consider the logical placement of provisions and relocate as necessary;
- ensure consistency and economy of language;
- identify substantive issues for consideration outside of the consolidation project.

A historical table showing the new and old numbers assigned to each rule with the dates of past changes since the 1998 Rules is available for download on the Law Society website (see Publications > Law Society Rules).

Code of Professional Conduct for British Columbia: Following a consultation with the profession, the Benchers have amended the rule on statements of accounts, in particular the duty of candour owed to clients regarding fees and other charges (rule 3.6-3, commentary [1]: p. 46); confidentiality restrictions are amended to allow parenting coordinators some discretion to disclose information (Appendix B, paragraph 4: p. 102.1).

Filing: File the amended pages in your Member's Manual as follows:

Manual section	Existing pages to be removed	Amendment pages to be inserted
Law Society Rules	Title page 1 – 136	Title page 1 – 224
Code of Professional Conduct for British Columbia	45 – 46 102.1 – 102.2	45 – 46 102.1 – 102.2

After filing, insert this sheet at the front of the Manual for reference.

Discipline proceedings involving members of other governing bodies

- 4-45 (1) The Executive Director must send written notice of the action to every governing body of which the person concerned is known to be a member when

 - (c) has made an admission that is accepted under a provision similar to Rule 4-29 [Conditional admission].
- (5) The fact that a lawyer concerned is or has been the subject of disciplinary proceedings by a governing body does not preclude any disciplinary action for the same or related conduct under this part.
- (6) In a proceeding under this part, the filing of a duly certified copy of the disciplinary decision of a governing body against a lawyer found guilty of misconduct is proof of the lawyer's guilt.

Discipline involving lawyers practising in other jurisdictions

- 4-46 (1) If it is alleged that a member of the Society has committed misconduct while practising temporarily in another Canadian jurisdiction under provisions equivalent to Rules 2-15 to 2-27 [Inter-jurisdictional practice], the Discipline Committee will

 - (c) the fact that the lawyer is not practising during the relevant period because of the suspension.
- (4) A panel that suspends a lawyer may relieve the lawyer of any of the obligations set out in subrule (3) if the panel is satisfied that it is consistent with the public interest and that imposing the obligation would be unreasonable in the circumstances.

Publication of disciplinary action

- 4-48 (1) The Executive Director must publish and circulate to the profession a summary of the circumstances and of any decision, reasons and action taken
- (a) at the conclusion of the facts and determination portion of a hearing of a citation,

Anonymous publication

- 4-49 (1) Except as allowed under this rule, a publication under Rule 4-48 [Publication of disciplinary action] must identify the respondent.
- (2) If all allegations in the citation are dismissed by a panel, the publication must not identify the respondent unless the respondent consents in writing.
 - (3) An individual affected, other than the respondent, may apply to the panel for an order under subrule (4) before the written report on findings of fact and determination is issued or oral reasons are delivered.
 - (4) On an application under subrule (3) or on its own motion, the panel may order that publication not identify the respondent if
 - (a) the panel has imposed a disciplinary action that does not include a suspension or disbarment, and
 - (b) publication of the identity of the respondent could reasonably be expected to identify an individual, other than the respondent, and that individual would suffer serious prejudice as a result.
 - (5) If a panel orders that a respondent's identity not be disclosed under subrule (4), the panel must state in writing the specific reasons for that decision.

Disclosure of practice restrictions

- 4-50 (1) When, under this part or Part 4 [Discipline] of the Act, a condition or limitation is imposed on the practice of a lawyer or a lawyer is suspended, the Executive Director may disclose the fact that the condition, limitation or suspension applies and the nature of the condition, limitation or suspension.
- (2) If a lawyer gives an undertaking that restricts, limits or prohibits the lawyer's practice in one or more areas of law, the Executive Director may disclose the fact that the undertaking was given and its effect on the lawyer's practice.
 - (3) If the Executive Director discloses the existence of a condition, limitation or suspension under subrule (1) or an undertaking under subrule (2) by means of the Society's website, the Executive Director must remove the information from the website within a reasonable time after the condition, limitation or suspension ceases to be in force.

- (a) an offence that was proceeded with by way of indictment, or
 - (b) an offence in another jurisdiction that, in the opinion of the Benchers, is equivalent to an offence that may be proceeded with by way of indictment.
- (2) If the Discipline Committee is satisfied that a lawyer or former lawyer has been convicted of an offence, the Committee may refer the matter to the Benchers to consider taking action under subrule (3).
- (3) Without following the procedure provided for in the Act or these rules, the Benchers may summarily suspend or disbar a lawyer or former lawyer on proof that the lawyer or former lawyer has been convicted of an offence.

Notice

- (2) When electronic records have been produced or copied pursuant to an order under this rule, the lawyer concerned may request that a specific record be excluded from the investigation on the basis that it contains personal information that is not relevant to the investigation.
- (3) The lawyer must make a request under subrule (2) in writing to a person designated under subrule (6) within 7 days of receiving a copy of the order under this rule.
- (4) An order under this rule that permits the production or copying of electronic records must provide for a method of evaluating and adjudicating exclusion requests made under subrule (2).
- (5) A request under subrule (2) must be refused unless the records in question are retained in a system of storage of electronic records that permits the segregation of personal information in a practical manner in order to comply with the request.
- (6) When an order is made under subrule (1),
- (a) the Executive Director must designate one or more persons to conduct the investigation, and
 - (b) the lawyer or former lawyer concerned must
 - (i) immediately produce and permit the copying of all files, vouchers, records, accounts, books and any other evidence regardless of the form in which they are kept,
 - (ii) provide any explanations that the persons designated under paragraph (a) require for the purpose of the investigation,

Definition

9-12 In this division “person applying” means a person applying or proposing to apply on behalf of a partnership for registration as a limited liability partnership or extraprovincial limited liability partnership under Part 6 [Limited Liability Partnerships] of the Partnership Act.

Practice through a limited liability partnership

9-13 A lawyer or law corporation is authorized to carry on the practice of law through a limited liability partnership, provided that the lawyer or law corporation and the limited liability partnership comply with the Partnership Act and meet the prerequisites of this division.

LLP name

9-14 A limited liability partnership must not use a name contrary to the Code of Professional Conduct, section 4.2 [Marketing].

Notice of application for registration

- 9-15 (1) Before an application to register a partnership or an extraprovincial limited liability partnership as a limited liability partnership is made on behalf of the partnership under Part 6 [Limited Liability Partnerships] of the Partnership Act, the person applying must

 - (b) membership in the partnership complies with subrules (3) and (5).

- (3) Each partner in an LLP must be
 - (a) a member of the Society,
 - (b) a member of a recognized legal profession in another jurisdiction,
 - (c) a law corporation holding a valid permit under this part or the equivalent in the jurisdiction in which it provides legal services, or
 - (d) a non-lawyer participating in the partnership in another Canadian jurisdiction as permitted in that jurisdiction.

- (5) At least one partner in an LLP must be a member of the Society or a law corporation holding a valid permit under this Part.

- (3) The notice required under subrule (2) must include a statement to the following effect, prominently placed:

The partners in a limited liability partnership are not personally liable for the negligent acts or omissions of another partner or an employee unless the partner knew of the negligent act or omission and did not take reasonable steps to prevent it. Accordingly, there is no reduction or limitation on the liability of the partnership.
- (4) When a firm is registered as an extraprovincial limited liability partnership under Part 6 [Limited Liability Partnerships] of the Partnership Act, the firm must promptly take reasonable steps to notify in writing each existing client of the firm in British Columbia of the registration and any change, resulting from the registration, in the liability of the partners.

Commentary

[1] What is a fair and reasonable fee depends on such factors as:

- (a) the time and effort required and spent;
- (b) the difficulty of the matter and the importance of the matter to the client;
- (c) whether special skill or service has been required and provided;
- (d) the results obtained;
- (e) fees authorized by statute or regulation;
- (f) special circumstances, such as the postponement of payment, uncertainty of reward, or urgency;
- (g) the likelihood, if made known to the client, that acceptance of the retainer will result in the lawyer's inability to accept other employment;
- (h) any relevant agreement between the lawyer and the client;
- (i) the experience and ability of the lawyer;
- (j) any estimate or range of fees given by the lawyer; and
- (k) the client's prior consent to the fee.

[2] The fiduciary relationship between lawyer and client requires full disclosure in all financial dealings between them and prohibits the acceptance by the lawyer of any hidden fees. No fee, extra fees, reward, costs, commission, interest, rebate, agency or forwarding allowance, or other compensation related to professional employment may be taken by the lawyer from anyone other than the client without full disclosure to and the consent of the client or, where the lawyer's fees are being paid by someone other than the client, such as a legal aid agency, a borrower, or a personal representative, without the consent of such agency or other person.

[3] A lawyer should provide to the client in writing, before or within a reasonable time after commencing a representation, as much information regarding fees and disbursements, and interest, as is reasonable and practical in the circumstances, including the basis on which fees will be determined.

[4] A lawyer should be ready to explain the basis of the fees and disbursement charged to the client. This is particularly important concerning fee charges or disbursements that the client might not reasonably be expected to anticipate. When something unusual or unforeseen occurs that may substantially affect the amount of a fee or disbursement, the lawyer should give to the client an immediate explanation. A lawyer should confirm with the client in writing the substance of all fee discussions that occur as a matter progresses, and a lawyer may revise an initial estimate of fees and disbursements.

Contingent fees and contingent fee agreements

3.6-2 Subject to rule 3.6-1, a lawyer may enter into a written agreement in accordance with governing legislation that provides that the lawyer's fee is contingent, in whole or in part, on the outcome of the matter for which the lawyer's services are to be provided.

Commentary

[1] In determining the appropriate percentage or other basis of a contingency fee, a lawyer and client should consider a number of factors, including the likelihood of success, the nature and complexity of the claim, the expense and risk of pursuing it, the amount of the expected recovery and who is to receive an award of costs. The test is whether the fee, in all of the circumstances, is fair and reasonable.

[2] Although a lawyer is generally permitted to terminate the professional relationship with a client and withdraw services if there is justifiable cause as set out in rule 3.7-1, special circumstances apply when the retainer is pursuant to a contingency agreement. In such circumstances, the lawyer has impliedly undertaken the risk of not being paid in the event the suit is unsuccessful. Accordingly, a lawyer cannot withdraw from representation for reasons other than those set out in Rule 3.7-7 (Obligatory withdrawal) unless the written contingency contract specifically states that the lawyer has a right to do so and sets out the circumstances under which this may occur.

Statement of account

3.6-3 In a statement of an account delivered to a client, a lawyer must clearly and separately detail the amounts charged as fees and disbursements.

Commentary

[1] A lawyer's duty of candour to a client requires the lawyer to disclose to the client at the outset, in a manner that is transparent and understandable to the client, the basis on which the client is to be billed for both professional time (lawyer, student and paralegal) and any other charges.
