

ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED	NOTES
INTRODUCTION Purpose and currency of checklist. This checklist is designed to be used with the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION AND VERIFICATION PROCEDURE (A-1) and SECURITY AGREEMENT PROCEDURE (B-12) checklists. It is current to September 1, 2018. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use of debenture. Where a debenture is being used, the items marked “(DEB)” should be considered. For the most part, a debenture and a general security agreement are not markedly different, except that a general security agreement charges only personal property and may include a floating charge on land, whereas a debenture may charge both personal and real property by way of fixed and floating charges. A debenture contains a promise to pay, whereas a general security agreement usually does not. • Fixtures and crops. Personal Property Security Regulation, B.C. Reg. 227/2002, s. 1(3) to (5), should be considered in the context of a charge on land, fixtures, or crops. The intent of these provisions is to ensure that fixtures and crops are included within the definition of personal property where the fixtures and crops are charged in conjunction with other personal property, but not where the fixtures or crops are charged in conjunction with an interest in the land to which the fixtures or crops are affixed. The wording of the sections, however, is complex, and should be carefully reviewed. New developments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Law Society Rules <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Juricert password. When using the electronic filing system of the Land Title Office, a lawyer must not disclose the lawyer’s password or permit any other person, including an employee, to use the password or affix the lawyer’s e-signature (Law Society Rule 3-96.1). • Temporary articulated student restrictions. Temporary articulated students are restricted from making certain appearances in Supreme Court, but not Provincial Court (Law Society Rule 2-71(2)). • Electronic transfer of trust funds. The Rules were amended in December 2017, effective July 1, 2018, to allow lawyers to electronically transfer trust funds using an online banking platform (Law Society Rules 3-64(4) and (6) to (8); 3-64.1; 3-64.2; 3-65(1), (1.1), and (2); and 3-66(2)). For questions, contact trustaccounting@lsbc.org or 604.697.5810. • Client identification and verification. The Federation of Law Societies of Canada has proposed amendments to its Model Rule on Client Identification and Verification Requirements. If the Federation’s Council approves the amendments, they will be forwarded to the law societies for adoption. Changes to the Law Society of BC’s rules would require the Benchers’ approval and, if approved, may affect the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION AND VERIFICATION PROCEDURE (A-1) checklist current to September 1, 2018. • The Law Society Rules are published at www.lawsociety.bc.ca/support-and-resources-for-lawyers/act-rules-and-code/law-society-rules.

ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED	NOTES
Of note: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fraud prevention. Lawyers should maintain an awareness of the myriad scams that target lawyers, including the bad cheque scam and fraudulent changes in payment instructions, and must be vigilant about the client identification and no-cash rules. See the “Fraud Prevention” page, including the “Fraud Alerts” section, on the Law Society website at www.lawsociety.bc.ca/support-and-resources-for-lawyers/lawyers-insurance-fund/fraud-prevention. • Searches of lawyers’ electronic devices at borders. In 2017, in response to the Law Society’s concerns about the searches of lawyers’ electronic devices by Canada Border Services Agency officers, the Minister of Public Safety advised that officers are instructed not to examine documents if they suspect they may be subject to privilege, if the documents are specifically marked with the assertion they are privileged, or if privilege is claimed by a lawyer with respect to the documents. View the Minister’s letter and Law Society’s response at www.lawsociety.bc.ca/our-initiatives/rule-of-law/issues-that-affect-the-rule-of-law. Lawyers are reminded to claim privilege where appropriate and to not disclose privileged information or the password to electronic devices containing privileged information without client consent or a court order. See also “Client Confidentiality—Think Twice before Taking Your Laptop or Smart Phone across Borders” in the Spring 2017 Bencher’s Bulletin and “Crossing the border into or out of the United States” in the Spring 2018 Bencher’s Bulletin. • Aboriginal law. If a security agreement involves reserve lands or personal property situated on an Indian reserve or on lands subject to a treaty, consider seeking advice from a lawyer who has experience in Aboriginal law matters. Further information on Aboriginal law issues is available on the “Aboriginal Law” page of the “Practice Areas” section of the Continuing Legal Education Society of British Columbia website www.cle.bc.ca and in other CLEBC publications. • Additional resources. (DEB) Provisions relating to promise to pay and interest: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promise to pay on demand, on a specified date, or by a payment schedule. • Amount (together with interest). • Where, when, and how payment is to be made. • Consider whether it is appropriate to limit the debenture to a specified amount, being the total aggregate amount that may at any time be outstanding, especially where there is a charge on land (or a charge on equity of redemption). • Interest to be paid on principal and overdue interest; payable after as well as before maturity, default, or judgment. • Interest rate (ensure compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Interest Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. I-15, and the Bank Act, S.C. 1991, c. 46. Also consider including a provision in respect of the Criminal Code, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-46, respecting the criminal rate of interest and the definition of “interest” established by the Criminal Code and case law). • Consider special clauses (e.g., an option to switch from a floating interest rate to a fixed rate). 6. SECURITY INTEREST 6.1 Creation of security interest in personal property: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> .1 Describe the collateral in accordance with s. 10 of the Personal Property Security Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 359 (“PPSA”) (including location of property, characterization of property under PPSA categories, serial numbers, and information required by the PPSA for serial-numbered goods (see ss. 9 to 12 of the Personal Property Security Regulation, B.C. Reg. 227/2002)). .2 After-acquired property. .3 Proceeds. .4 Consider excepting consumer goods from collateral (PPSA, ss. 55, 58, 61, 62, and 67). .5 Consider excepting the last day of the term of any lease. .6 If perfection is by possession, state that the collateral is delivered to the secured party for the purpose of perfecting the security interest. .7 For aircraft objects, ensure that the agreement complies with the requirements for description of collateral pursuant to the Convention on International Interests in Mobile Equipment, signed in Cape Town on November 16, 2001, and the Protocol to the Convention on International Interests in Mobile Equipment on Matters Specific to Aircraft Equipment. The Convention and Protocol have the force of law in British Columbia under the International Interests in Mobile Equipment (Aircraft Equipment) Act, S.B.C. 2011, c. 12. 6.2 Consider the effect of s. 4 of the PPSA and the need for a separate agreement and/or registration charging property not governed by the PPSA.

ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED	NOTES
6.3 Consider the need to assign and charge intellectual property pursuant to a separate agreement that can be registered, as appropriate, with federal registration offices. 6.4 No postponement of attachment of security interest. (See item 12.1.) 6.5 Creation of floating charge: .1 Describe the property broadly. .2 Use Land Title Office (“LTO”) execution format. 6.6 Consider the need for a control agreement in respect of investment property. 6.7 For aircraft objects, consider whether an Irrevocable De-registration and Export Request Authorisation (IDERA) is required. (DEB) Creation of fixed charge on real property, leasehold property, fixtures, chattels, etc.: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe the property in accordance with LTO requirements. • Create Form B—Mortgage for LTO purposes (use the e-file form) and attach the debenture as Part 2 (unless debenture terms are filed as standard mortgage terms under the Land Title Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 250). • A fixed charge on real property is conceptually the same whether included in a debenture or a mortgage. All searches, investigations, and other steps normally undertaken in commercial mortgage transactions are equally applicable where the mortgage is contained in a debenture.
7. DEBTOR’S REPRESENTATIONS AND COVENANTS 7.1 The representations are accurate. 7.2 Where the debtor is a corporation or other artificial body: .1 The debtor is an existing corporation with capacity to execute, deliver, and perform its obligations under the security agreement and related documents. The debtor will maintain its corporate existence, remain in good standing, not alter its memorandum or articles, and not amalgamate, continue, or undergo corporate re-organization. .2 The security agreement is made in accordance with the required resolutions and all other things have been done to make the execution and delivery of the security agreement legal and valid. 7.3 There are no pending actions against the debtor (or any subsidiary) or affecting the collateral. 7.4 Entry into, delivery, and performance of this security agreement does not result in a breach of any contracts or agreements that would adversely or materially affect the business, properties, operations, or financial condition of the debtor (or any subsidiary). 7.5 The debtor will not change its name or use a different name or trade name. 7.6 The debtor will not relocate its place of business, chief executive office, principal residence, or collateral to a place outside British Columbia. 7.7 The debtor will not dispose of its undertaking, and will maintain the business and the collateral.

Failure to enforce does not constitute a waiver of any default.

ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED	NOTES
9. ENFORCEMENT 9.1 Specify circumstances in which the secured party may use the various measures set out in the security agreement. 9.2 The secured party is to have all rights at law, including under the PPSA and in equity. 9.3 The secured party has the power to enter, take possession of, collect, and use the collateral, to carry on the business of the debtor, and to exclude others, including the debtor. 9.4 The secured party has the power to preserve, maintain, and repair the collateral. 9.5 The secured party has the power to lease or sell the collateral, with the proceeds of the sale to be applied as set out in the security agreement. 9.6 The secured party has the power to sell with a deferred purchase price. 9.7 The secured party has the power to collect accounts. 9.8 Power to have a receiver or receiver-manager appointed (see, generally, s. 64 of the PPSA with respect to the appointment and qualifications of receivers): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> .1 Set out how the power will be exercised. .2 A receiver-manager is an agent, officer, or attorney of the debtor, and the debtor is solely responsible for the receiver-manager's acts, defaults, and remuneration. .3 The secured party has no liability to the receiver-manager for remuneration, expenses, etc. .4 Powers of receiver-manager: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) To take possession of, collect, and use the property. (b) To carry on or concur in the carrying on of the business and to employ, discharge, and set remuneration for any persons. (c) To sell or lease or concur in the selling or leasing of the property and to defer payment of selling price. (d) To borrow money to carry on the business or maintain the property and to issue receiver's certificate. (e) To make any arrangement that he or she thinks expedient. .5 A receiver-manager is not liable for loss, unless caused by their negligence or wilful default. .6 A purchaser is not bound to inquire regarding the validity of a sale. .7 Proceeds of sale or profits of business are to be applied as set out in the security agreement, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) To pay the receiver-manager's remuneration and expenses. (b) To pay to the secured party any unpaid interest or other monies owing. (c) To pay to the secured party the principal due. (d) To pay any surplus to the debtor, subject to the rights of other creditors.

ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED	NOTES
9.9 The secured party does not elect to retain collateral unless notice is given to that effect. 9.10 Consider acknowledging that specified procedures are “commercially reasonable”. 9.11 The debtor’s rights of reinstatement are limited to those set out in the PPSA. 9.12 The debtor is liable for any deficiency (excepting consumer goods). 9.13 All realization expenses are to be payable by the debtor and secured by the collateral. (DEB) 9.14 Consider enforcement provisions relating to any real property charged: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Power to enter, take possession of, and use the property, and exclude the debtor. • Power to preserve, maintain, and repair the property. • Power to lease or sell the property, with the proceeds of the sale applied as set out in the debenture. • Power to appoint a receiver or receiver-manager (see item 9.8 for sample clauses). • Power to proceed in respect of both real property and personal property as if the personal property were real property.
10. OTHER RIGHTS OF THE SECURED PARTY 10.1 To do anything the debtor is required to do, if the debtor fails to do so. Costs to be payable by the debtor (with interest until paid) and secured by the collateral. 10.2 To pay monies to preserve, protect, or repair the collateral. Costs to be payable by the debtor (with interest until paid) and secured by the collateral. 10.3 To release any one or more guarantors or debtors without releasing the others or prejudicing the security, to release other security held by the secured party, or to release some of the collateral. 10.4 To apply insurance proceeds, at the secured party’s option, to the repair or reinstatement of the property or to the indebtedness secured by the security interest. 10.5 To realize on all securities, in any order. Rights and remedies set out in the security agreement are cumulative and additional to any other remedies. 10.6 To allocate payments to preserve purchase money security interests (“PMSIs”). 10.7 To require the debtor to pay fees incurred in enforcing the security and for registering discharges and amendments. 10.8 To be appointed attorney for all purposes required under the security agreement; this is particularly important with respect to assignments of “property” that is neither real nor personal (e.g., milk quota or fishing licence). Consider a separate assignment and power of attorney agreement. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Consider consequences of an expropriation. (b) Consider adding any other rights typically included in commercial mortgage documents.

10.9 To exercise rights under a control agreement relating to collateral that is investment property.
11. SECURITY PROVISIONS 11.1 Security is additional to any other security held by the secured party. No merger. 11.2 Valid and continuing security until discharge. 11.3 Obligation to pay is not extinguished by a judgment or the exercise of power of seizure or sale. Consider PPSA, s. 67 in respect of consumer goods. 11.4 Consider specifying (and limiting) the duties of the secured party when collateral is in its possession, or includes goods, instruments, investment property, chattel paper, or documents of title.
12. MISCELLANEOUS 12.1 The secured party has no obligation to advance monies or otherwise. Consider the effect on attachment for PPSA purposes. 12.2 Conditions to be satisfied for discharge. Releases and discharges to be prepared by the secured party, on the debtor's request and at the debtor's expense. 12.3 Assignment of rights. Assignees to be bound by the provisions of the security agreement. Consider no assignment by debtor. 12.4 Waive receipt of copies of financing statements and financing change statements. 12.5 Acknowledge receipt of a copy of the security agreement and, if not waived as per item 12.4, the financing statements. 12.6 Release and limitation on secured party liability. 12.7 Secured party may grant extensions of time. 12.8 Debtor to waive all rights permissible to waive. 12.9 Consider prohibition on the power to grant, create, or permit other security. 12.10 Where there is more than one debtor, indicate whether the obligation is joint and several. 12.11 Monies secured to be paid without regard to any equities between the debtor and the original or any intermediate secured party, or any right of set-off or counterclaim. 12.12 Consider the following provisions for the debenture: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Secured party is exclusively entitled to the benefit of the debenture. The debtor is not bound to recognize any trust or equity affecting ownership. (b) Repayment of advances does not constitute redemption. (c) Prepayment rights or penalties; partial or full payment prior to due date.
13. INTERPRETATION AND GENERAL PROVISIONS 13.1 Definitions. 13.2 Choice of law/attornment to jurisdiction clause. Note that ss. 5 to 8.1 of the PPSA limit the applicability of any choice-of-law clause.

13.3 Principles that govern the interpretation of the security agreement (e.g., use of the masculine form, insertion of headings for convenience only). 13.4 Severability. 13.5 Time is of the essence. 13.6 Notices. 13.7 Enurement. 13.8 Amendments. 13.9 Schedules (e.g., list of assets, serial numbered goods, permitted encumbrances). 13.10 Further assurances.
