

PROVISIONS TO BE CONSIDERED	NOTES
INTRODUCTION Purpose and currency of checklist. This checklist is designed to be used with the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION AND VERIFICATION PROCEDURE (A-1), WILL PROCEDURE (G-1), and WILL DRAFTING (G-3) checklists. It is intended to be used as a guide to gathering information needed to advise the will-maker and draft the will. This checklist must be considered in relation to the particular facts at hand and augmented and revised as appropriate. It is current to August 31, 2016. New developments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Graduated rate estate (GRE) and estate donation rules. In December 2014, amendments were made to the provisions of the Income Tax Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Supp.) dealing with taxation of estates and testamentary trusts; these took effect January 1, 2016. Generally, income retained in estates and testamentary trusts is now subject to tax at the highest marginal rates applicable to individuals. However, an estate that qualifies as a GRE is eligible to claim graduated rates for the 36-month period following death. Other amendments also in effect from January 1, 2016, provide for greater flexibility for estates to benefit from charitable donations made under a will or by designations on registered plans or life insurance policies. Where the rules apply, the gift is deemed to be made by the estate, and the donation credit may be claimed in the estate or in the terminal year or the immediately prior taxation year of the deceased. In order to qualify, the estate must be a GRE at the time of death and when the gift is paid; however, proposed changes will extend the period in which payment must be made from 36 months to 60 months.</li> <li>• Pension Benefits Standards Act. The new Pension Benefits Standards Act, S.B.C. 2012, c. 30 came into force on September 15, 2015 (see B.C. Reg. 71/2015).</li> <li>• Articled students permitted to act as commissioners for taking affidavits. Effective September 1, 2015, articled students and temporary articled students are commissioners for taking affidavits in British Columbia (B.C. Reg. 142/2015, made pursuant to s. 60(1) of the Evidence Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 124). Principals remain responsible for students' actions and must ensure that students understand the effect of acting as commissioner.</li> <li>• Law Society Rules. On July 1, 2015, revised and consolidated Law Society Rules came into effect. See www.lawsociety.bc.ca/page.cfm?cid=4089&amp;t=Law-Society-Rules-2015. Lawyers acting as personal representatives and trustees outside the practice of law, where the appointment derives from practice, are relieved of some, but not all, of the responsibilities to the Law Society in that regard while maintaining the Society's ability to regulate and audit lawyers' compliance (see definitions of "fiduciary property", "general funds", "trust funds", and "valuables" in Rules 1, 3-53, 3-55, 3-75, and 3-87). Also, a client must agree in writing to receive a bill by any means other than that specifically addressed in Rule 3-65(3).</li> <li>• Code of Professional Conduct for British Columbia (the "BC Code"). In July 2015, rule 3.7-9 was amended to require that a lawyer promptly notify the client, other counsel, and the court or tribunal of the lawyer's withdrawal from a file. Rule 3.6-3, commentary [1] was amended in June 2015 regarding the duty of candour owed to clients respecting fees and other charges for which a client is billed.</li> </ul>

Of note: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wills, Estates and Succession Act. Most of the Wills, Estates and Succession Act, S.B.C. 2009, c. 13 (the “WESA”), as amended by the Wills, Estates and Succession Amendment Act, 2011, S.B.C. 2011, c. 6 came into force on March 31, 2014 (see B.C. Reg. 148/2013). Among many other changes, the WESA repealed and replaced the Estate Administration Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 122; the Probate Recognition Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 376; the Wills Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 489; and the Wills Variation Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 490.</li> <li>• Family Law Act. The Family Law Act, S.B.C. 2011, c. 25 came into force on March 18, 2013. It repealed and replaced the Family Relations Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 128, and provides a new family property division regime, as well as changes to guardianship laws.</li> <li>• Family Homes on Reserves and Matrimonial Interests or Rights Act. On December 16, 2014, ss. 12 to 52 of the Family Homes on Reserves and Matrimonial Interests or Rights Act, S.C. 2013, c. 20, came into force (see SI/2013-128), ss. 1 to 11 and 53 having come into force on December 16, 2013. This new federal legislation applies to married and common-law spouses living on reserve land where at least one spouse is a First Nations member or an Indian. Sections 13 to 52 apply to First Nations who have not enacted their own matrimonial real property laws. Sections 14 and 34 to 40 pertain to the consequences of the death of a spouse or common-law partner.</li> <li>• Additional resources. See also Annotated Estates Practice, 10th ed. PROVISIONS TO BE CONSIDERED	NOTES
CHECKLIST 1. INFORMATION ABOUT THE WILL-MAKER'S FAMILY 1.1 Confirm compliance with Law Society Rules 3-98 to 3-109 on client identification and verification; complete the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION AND VERIFICATION PROCEDURE (A-1) checklist. Provide the client with terms of engagement in writing, including an explanation of fees, disbursements, and other charges. See BC Code, s. 3.6 as to fees and disbursements. Note rule 3.6-3, commentary [1] regarding the duty of candour owed to clients respecting fees and other charges for which a client is billed. .1 Joint retainer. Review BC Code rules 3.4-5 to 3.4-9. Note the requirements in rule 3.4-5, commentary [2] and [3] regarding specific advice the lawyer must give to clients when receiving will instructions from spouses or partners, the consent that should be obtained, and what to do if, subsequently, one spouse communicates new instructions. .2 Conflicts—clauses that should not appear in the will. Review BC Code rules 3.4-37 to 3.4-39. You must not include a clause directing the executor to retain the lawyer's services for estate administration (see rule 3.4-37). The will-maker may communicate in the will or by a separate document the will-maker's wish that the executor retain a particular lawyer or firm to act for the estate, although such a statement by the will-maker would be advisory only (Ethics Committee April 4, 2013). Do not include a clause giving the lawyer or an associate a gift or benefit, unless the client is a family member (see rule 3.4-38). Also consider rule 3.4-26.1 to 26.2. "Family member" is not defined in the BC Code, but the BC Lawyers' Compulsory Professional Insurance policy defines "family member" as a spouse, children, parent, or siblings. The lawyer must not accept a gift, other than a nominal gift, from the client unless the client has received independent legal advice (see rule 3.4-39). 1.2 Obtain additional client information, including: .1 Aliases. .2 Date of birth. .3 Place of birth. .4 Domicile. .5 Social insurance number. .6 Marital status, including any plans to marry. .7 Date of marriage (if applicable). .8 Place of marriage (if applicable). .9 Name of spouse, including a person with whom the will-maker is in a marriage-like relationship. .10 Marriage-like relationship: duration and other particulars of the relationship. .11 Particulars of marriage agreement, cohabitation agreement, or separation agreement. .12 Particulars of divorce and any spousal support obligations.

The latter includes property brought into the relationship, gifts, and inheritances received by one spouse during the relationship, as well as certain interests in trusts. PROVISIONS TO BE CONSIDERED	NOTES
.6 If the will-maker intends to make an outright gift to a disabled beneficiary, consider whether the beneficiary would be capable of managing the gift, and whether the gift would diminish any government benefits or require significant expense to rearrange the gift in order to preserve benefits. Consider the benefits of a discretionary trust, or a “qualified disability trust” (Income Tax Act, s. 122(3)). 5.11 Distribution of estate on the predecease of spouse or on termination of the spouse’s life estate. .1 Equal division among children. (a) Interest to vest at age of majority or other specified age. (b) Interest to vest immediately or in portions at specified ages. (c) Interest to vest immediately subject to divestment if child dies before age of majority or other specified age. (i) Per stirpes (if gift made to issue). (ii) Per capita. (d) Representation of issue where child predeceases or fails to reach specified age. (e) Timing of distribution. (i) When youngest child reaches age of majority or other specified age. (ii) Immediately with shares of minor children to be held in trust pending age of majority or other specified age. .2 Children entitled to life estate with remainder over to grandchildren. (a) Per stirpes (if gift over to “issue”). (b) Per capita. .3 Children beneficiaries under a discretionary trust. Consider: (a) Accumulation of annual income if not fully distributed. (b) Scope of purposes for income distributions or capital encroachments (e.g., education, medical, maintenance). (c) Consider power to exhaust capital in a discretionary trust for disabled beneficiary. (d) Timing of winding-up, and identity and respective entitlements of beneficiaries. .4 Unequal division between children or exclusion of one or more children. (a) Possibility of variation application under WESA, ss. 60 to 72. (b) Explanation in the text of the will of unequal division or exclusion (previous gifts, etc.), or in a separate memorandum (note WESA, s. 62). (c) Gifts made before or after the will to be taken into account or forgiven. (d) Use of a purely discretionary trust to protect mentally or physically disabled child. .5 Division among other relatives or other beneficiaries. Consider “common disaster” provision.

.6 Consider application of the rule against perpetuities as modified by the Perpetuity Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 358. .7 Consider the rule in Saunders v. Vautier (1841), 41 E.R. 482, and gifts over in order to avoid collapsing trust at age of majority. 5.12 Charitable gifts. .1 Consider problems arising if the will-maker wishes to benefit a charity not registered under the Income Tax Act or make a gift for a charitable purpose. .2 If a client wishes to name a charity as a beneficiary, explain to the client the importance of using the correct legal name. Then either verify the charity's correct name or confirm that the client will perform the verification. If the gift is intended for a specific purpose, the client should determine that the charity can actually fulfill that purpose. It may be appropriate to discuss the provision of an alternate beneficiary in the event the charity no longer exists on the date of the client's death. The Canadian Donor's Guide and Canada Revenue Agency's "Charities Listings" will provide information about a charity. .3 Consider additional tax benefits of gifts of publicly-traded securities, cultural property, or ecologically sensitive land. .4 Consider giving the executor discretion to make gifts to charity from estate assets. .5 Confirm estate will have GRE status and executors will be able to pay gift within 36 months of death (60 months under proposed changes), as required by Income Tax Act, s. 118.1(5). 5.13 Trusts for sale. .1 Consider which assets should be subject to an express trust for sale and which to an express trust to hold, or separate and substantive powers to hold or sell. .2 Consider what powers should be granted ancillary to the trusts. .3 Consider the application of the even hand rule. .4 Income from corporations—consider clauses stipulating that: (a) Bonus shares representing accumulated income are to be treated as if they were income. (b) Dividends representing the proceeds of the sale of corporate assets other than inventory are to be treated as if they were capital. 5.14 Trustees' investment powers (see Trustee Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 464, ss. 15.1 to 15.6 and 17.1, which establish a "prudent investor" standard). .1 Power to delegate investment decisions to professional investment advisors. .2 Power in trustees to act on majority vote with respect to investment decisions. .3 Regardless of other provisions, power to retain any investment existing at the date of death. .4 Consider granting a third party (perhaps a beneficiary) veto control over certain investment decisions (e.g., holdings in a private corporation).

6. ATTESTATION CLAUSE 6.1 Ensure that the clause reflects any special circumstances (e.g., blind will-maker, signing with a mark). 7. ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF INSTRUCTIONS AS A PRO TEM TESTAMENTARY INSTRUMENT 7.1 Consider the effect of WESA, s. 58, that a document representing the testamentary intentions of a deceased person may be ordered by a court to be fully effective as though it had been made as a will. Where there are exigent circumstances making it impossible or impractical to arrange for timely execution of a formal will, the client may wish to signify testamentary intentions on the will instructions. Discuss with client, including discussion of costs and uncertainties involved in such an application.
