INTRODUCTION Purpose and currency of checklist. This checklist is designed to be used with the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION AND VERIFICATION PROCEDURE (A-1) checklist. It is intended for use by counsel representing the complainant or the respondent in proceedings before the British Columbia Human Rights Tribunal (the “tribunal”). Most procedures are the same for both the complainant and the respondent, but where procedures differ, the checklist refers specifically to one or the other. This checklist is current to August 31, 2016. New developments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Human Rights Code amendments. On July 28, 2016, the Human Rights Code Amendment Act, 2016, S.B.C. 2016, c. 26 came into effect. The amendments add the grounds “gender identity or expression” to all areas of the Human Rights Code, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 210 (except wage discrimination based on sex) and “sexual orientation” and “gender identity or expression” to the non-profit exemption and the employment equity provision. • Practice and procedure. On January 15, 2016, the B.C. Human Rights Tribunal published revised Rules of Practice and Procedure (“BCHRT Rules”), effective that day in regard to all complaints. The old disclosure rules apply where the tribunal had previously notified parties of the disclosure requirements under the July 15, 2014 Rules, in which case Rule 20 of those Rules continue to apply. If the tribunal had yet to notify the parties of their disclosure requirements, then the new Rules 20, 20.1, and 20.2 apply. The new disclosure rules provide consequences for missing the time limit; address the disclosure of witness lists, remedy sought, and documents relating to the remedy sought; provide ongoing disclosure obligations; and address the confidentiality of disclosed documents. Other changes to the BCHRT Rules are that Rule 11(4) allows for proof of delivery by email and Rule 31.1 deals with participation at a hearing by phone or video. See www.bchrt.gov.bc.ca/law-library/rules/2016version.htm. On January 15, 2016, the tribunal added a number of new forms: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Form 9.1—Complainant Document Disclosure • Form 9.2—Respondent Document Disclosure • Form 9.3—Witness List • Form 9.4—Remedy Sought • Form 9.5—Complainant Document Disclosure Regarding Remedy • Form 9.6—Response to Remedy Sought • Form 9.7—Respondent Document Disclosure Regarding Remedy • Articled students permitted to act as commissioners for taking affidavits. Effective September 1, 2015, articled students and temporary articled students are prescribed as persons who are commissioners for taking affidavits in British Columbia (B.C. Reg. 142/2015, made pursuant to s. 60(1) of the Evidence Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 124). Principals remain responsible for students’ actions and will need to ensure that students understand the effect of acting as commissioner. • Code of Professional Conduct for British Columbia (the “BC Code”). In July 2015, rule 3.7-9 was amended to require that a lawyer promptly notify the client, other counsel, and the court or tribunal of the lawyer’s withdrawal from a file.

INITIAL CONTACT <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.1 Confirm compliance with the Law Society Rules 3-98 to 3-109 on client identification and verification; complete the client identification and verification procedure (A-1) checklist. If the client is a company, note the rules about verifying the identity of the company and the individual(s) instructing you on behalf of the company. 1.2 Determine whether there is a conflict of interest. See Code of Professional Conduct for British Columbia (the “BC Code”), s. 3.4 and the model conflicts of interest checklist on the Law Society website at www.lawsociety.bc.ca/docs/practice/resources/checklist-conflicts.pdf. Ensure that the client has not retained another lawyer or commenced another proceeding relating to the complaint (see also items 1.5.1 and 1.5.2). 1.3 Advise the client to list all potential witnesses and, if possible, to obtain their full names, addresses, and telephone numbers. 1.4 Ask the client to collect all relevant records and notes and to prepare a memorandum of the facts (including sketches or photographs, where appropriate), and bring this material to your meeting.

1.5 During initial contact or initial interview: .1 Determine if the client is a union member. If so: (a) Is the union aware of the human rights issue, and has a grievance been filed? (b) If a grievance has been filed, at what stage is the proceeding? .2 Determine if the client is unable to work because of the discriminatory issues. If so, is the employee entitled to claim for disability benefits or workers' compensation? (a) If so, have those claims been initiated in a timely fashion? (b) If not, should claims be initiated? 1.6 Advise the client as to the relevant general legal principles. 1.7 During initial contact or the initial interview decide whether to accept the case, considering: .1 The time limits for the complaint. .2 The duty to make legal resources available to the public (see BC Code rule 2.1-5(c)); whether declining to represent this person would make it difficult for him or her to find counsel at all. .3 The amount of fee and whether it would be paid. .4 A lawyer's special responsibility to respect the requirements of human rights laws (BC Code, s. 6.3.). .5 That a lawyer must not abuse the tribunal's process by instituting proceedings that, although legal, are clearly motivated by malice on the client's part and are brought solely for the purpose of injuring the other party (BC Code, rule 5.1-2(a)). 1.8 If you do not wish to act: .1 Advise the caller, and, if the caller does not know how to find another lawyer, suggest names of other lawyers or give them information about how to contact Lawyer Referral. .2 Record the advice given, and file it in your records. Consider sending the caller a non-engagement letter (for samples, see the Law Society website at www.lawsociety.bc.ca/page.cfm?cid=1583&t=Model-Non-Engagement-Letters).
2. INITIAL INTERVIEW 2.1 Keep a record of the interview, either by taking notes or by taping (with the client's consent). 2.2 Determine the client's objectives and expectations. See also item 1.7. 2.3 Discuss the tribunal process, including the various stages, the overall length, and the estimated cost. Advise that you do not guarantee success. (Note that there is no system of awarding costs against unsuccessful parties; costs may be ordered only if one of the parties engages in improper conduct during the course of the complaint, or contravenes a rule, decision, order, or direction of the tribunal, or both (BCHRT Rule 4(2) and (3) and Human Rights Code, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 210, s. 37(4)).)

2.4 Advise the client how your account is calculated, the method and timing of payment, and the conditions on which you undertake to act; see BC Code, s. 3.6 (Fees and Disbursements). It is advisable to finalize a fee arrangement early, and in writing. If possible and appropriate, have the client sign a fee agreement at the initial interview. Note that Law Society Rule 3-59 places restrictions on all cash transactions and regulates the circumstances in which a lawyer can accept $7,500 or more in respect of any one client matter or transaction. There is no limit on cash received for a retainer commensurate with the legal services to be provided. Law Society Rule 3-70 contains requirements for recording cash transactions in a cash receipt book of duplicate receipts with signatures and other particulars. 2.5 Satisfy yourself that the client is competent to give instructions. (See BC Code rules 3.2-9 and 3.3-1, commentary [10].) 2.6 If the case is complex, unusual, or outside your usual area of practice, consider consulting other counsel or declining to act. 2.7 Get particulars of any settlement proposals made by the potential opposing participant’s counsel. 2.8 Complete an initial interview checklist (see the GENERAL LITIGATION PROCEDURE (E-2) checklist or the PERSONAL INJURY PLAINTIFF’S INTERVIEW OR EXAMINATION FOR DISCOVERY (E-3) checklist for an example). Obtain information on matters such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> .1 Client. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Full name, address, telephone numbers, email address, occupation, age. (b) Any other details relevant to the type of complaint. .2 Fact pattern that gave rise to the complaint. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) Full particulars of what happened, as well as when and where it happened. (b) Parties to the complaint. If representing the complainant, identify all potential respondents and intervenors. If representing the respondent, determine whether there is a right to add others to the proceeding. (c) Witnesses. (d) Evidence, such as statements and photographs. .3 Damages sustained by the client. .4 Damages sustained by other potential participants, and any right of set-off. .5 Whether any other complaints, charges, or proceedings related to the complaint have been commenced against any of the participants. 2.9 Consider the relevant facts and law, and give the client a preliminary opinion as to the advisability of proceeding with the complaint. If you advise proceeding, assess the potential awards or remedies. 2.10 Discuss settlement, strategy, and the risks of proceedings. (Encourage compromise or settlement if it is possible to do so on a reasonable basis. Discourage the client from commencing or continuing useless legal proceedings. See BC Code rule 3.2-4.)

LEGEND — NA = Not applicable L = Lawyer LA = Legal assistant ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED	NA	L	LA	DATE DUE	DATE DONE
2.11 Obtain a retainer, if appropriate, and instructions defining the extent of your authority. Also consider the form of retainer, who will give instructions, and to whom you will report. 2.12 Consider the possibility of retaining experts; discuss the expense with the client and emphasize the necessity of expert support in appropriate cases. Obtain instructions. 2.13 Obtain executed authorization forms for release of information, such as medical information, employment information, and any other information required to be released. 2.14 Ask the client to provide you with any other documentary evidence that is, or may be, relevant. Explain the client’s duty to disclose all relevant, or possibly relevant, documents. 2.15 Discuss employing an investigator. 2.16 Give any other instructions or advice relevant to the type of complaint.
3. FOLLOW-UP FROM INITIAL INTERVIEW
3.1 Determine limitation periods and diarize notable dates.
3.2 Send a letter to the client:
.1 Confirming your retainer and setting out the manner in which the fees, disbursements, interest, and taxes will be determined. Consider Legal Profession Act, Part 8; Law Society Rules, Part 8; and BC Code, s. 3.6 in regard to the rules regarding reasonable fees and disbursements. See also commentary [1] to rule 3.6-3 regarding the duty of candour owed to clients respecting fees and other charges.
If you will be providing a limited scope of legal services, ensure that the client understands the limited scope of the retainer and the risks associated with the limits on the services you will provide. BC Code rule 3.2-1.1 requires that, before undertaking a “limited scope retainer” (a defined term in rule 1.1-1), you must advise the client about the nature, extent, and scope of the services you can provide and must confirm in writing as soon as practicable what services will be provided. Also be aware of the obligations in BC Code rules 3.1-2, 7.2-6, and 7.2-6.1. Note that rule 3.2-1.1 regarding “limited scope retainers” does not apply to situations in which you are providing summary advice, for example, over a telephone hotline or as duty counsel, or to an initial consultation that may result in the client retaining you. If you are providing “limited legal services” of a summary nature (not the same as a “limited scope retainer”) under the auspices of a not-for-profit organization with the expectation by you and the client that you will not provide continuing representation in the matter, note BC Code rules 3.4-11.1 to 3.4-11.4 regarding conflicts and confidentiality.
.2 Enclosing a copy of the record of the interview.
.3 Confirming your instructions from the client.
.4 Giving or confirming your recommendations to the client.
.5 Asking the client to sign and return a copy.

3.3 Send a letter to the opposing participant’s counsel: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> .1 Advising of your involvement. .2 Requesting copies of any statements or other documents signed by the complainant. .3 Revoking previously signed authorizations, if required. 3.4 Open file: note relevant dates and place checklist(s) in file. 3.5 Conduct searches and obtain certified copies of documents, as required. 4. BEFORE COMMENCING PROCEEDINGS 4.1 Send demand letters to potential respondents, if appropriate. 4.2 Send letters to other involved participants, if appropriate. 4.3 Start collecting and verifying all the facts. Consult every source, including every document that may be relevant and any person who may have information. 4.4 Study the relevant law in sufficient detail to enable you to identify all potential strategies and remedies. 5. FILING THE COMPLAINT 5.1 File the complaint within the six-month time limit (BCHRT Rule 12; Human Rights Code, s. 22(1) and (2)). 5.2 Provide addresses for delivery to all participants and to the tribunal (BCHRT Rule 8(2)). 5.3 Unless the tribunal directs otherwise, according to BCHRT Rule 10(3) and (4), all communications with the tribunal must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> .1 Be addressed to the registrar or case manager. .2 Include the complainant’s name and case number. .3 Include the names of the participants to whom a copy of the communication will be delivered. 5.4 The tribunal or a participant may deliver a communication to a participant by regular mail (which is deemed to be delivered seven days after it was mailed, unless there is evidence to the contrary), or by registered mail, or by hand, courier, process server, fax, email, or alternative methods by order of the tribunal (BCHRT Rule 11(1), (2), and (3)). If the tribunal requires proof of delivery, an affidavit or testimony from the deliverer, a copy of Canada Post’s registered mail confirmation, a fax transmittal record, email confirmation, or a copy of the sent email may be provided (BCHRT Rule 11(4)). 5.5 Complete the complaint form (Form 1.1—Individual Complaint Form; BCHRT Rule 12(1)), and have the complainant sign. 5.6 Determine who the respondents will be, and identify them clearly. 5.7 Provide details of the alleged discrimination in the complaint form, considering whether evidence will be available to support the allegations. Ensure the details reflect the actual fact pattern, and ensure there are sufficient facts to establish the relief sought.

LEGEND — NA = Not applicable L = Lawyer LA = Legal assistant ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED	NA	L	LA	DATE DUE	DATE DONE
5.8 If the complainant is making the complaint on behalf of another person, the complainant must complete and file Form 1.2—Complaint for Another Person. If the complainant is making the complaint on behalf of a group or class of persons, the complainant must complete and file Form 1.3—Complaint for Group or Class. If the complainant is making a complaint of retaliation, the complainant must complete and file Form 1.4—Retaliation Complaint Form (BCHRT Rule 12(1)). 5.9 File the complaint by mail, fax, email, hand, courier, or process server (BCHRT Rule 10(2)). 5.10 If another proceeding may resolve the complaint, the tribunal may defer the complaint pending the outcome of that proceeding (Human Rights Code, s. 25(2); and see Step 5 of the complaint form and BCHRT Rule 16). 5.11 Consider an early settlement meeting (see Step 7 of the complaint form).
6. COMPLAINT FILED OUT OF TIME/TRIBUNAL LACKS JURISDICTION
6.1 If the complaint will be filed after the time limit, the complainant must complete Step 4 of the complaint form to request that the tribunal accept it after the time limit. .1 The tribunal may accept a late complaint if: (a) It is in public interest to accept the complaint. (b) No substantial prejudice will result to anyone because of the delay (Human Rights Code, s. 22(3); BCHRT Rule 12(3)). .2 The respondent, upon receiving the tribunal’s letter advising of complainant’s request, must complete Form 4—Time Limit Response, deliver a copy to the other participants, and file the original with the tribunal within the time allowed (BCHRT Rules 12(6) and 28(3) to (6)). .3 If the complainant wishes to reply, the complainant must complete Form 5—Time Limit Reply, deliver a copy to the other participants, and then file the original with the tribunal within the time allowed (BCHRT Rule 12(6)). .4 Participants receive the tribunal’s decision. 6.2 The tribunal has jurisdiction only over complaints that allege facts that, if proven, could be a contravention of the Human Rights Code against each person named as a respondent (BCHRT Rule 12(2)). Before deciding whether to accept a complaint for filing, the tribunal may provide the complainant with an opportunity to file further or clarifying information. If it does so and the complainant files an amendment within the time allowed by the tribunal, the amended complaint will be treated as if filed on the day the complaint was first filed (BCHRT Rule 12(4) and (5)). If the complaint cannot be accepted for filing, the tribunal will advise the complainant of the reasons.
7. RESPONDING TO THE COMPLAINT
7.1 The respondent receives a copy of the complaint with the tribunal’s notice advising that it has accepted the complaint for filing (BCHRT Rule 13(1)).

LEGEND — NA = Not applicable L = Lawyer LA = Legal assistant ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED	NA	L	LA	DATE DUE	DATE DONE
7.2 The respondent must complete a Form 2—Complaint Response, deliver a copy to the other participants, and file the original with the tribunal within the time allowed (BCHRT Rule 18). .1 To request an extension of time to respond to a complaint, a respondent must notify the tribunal of the length of the extension requested and of either the other party’s consent or the reasons for the request (BCHRT Rule 18(7)). See also BCHRT Rule 18(8) and (9). 7.3 If a respondent does not respond to a complaint within the time allowed, the address at which the tribunal notified the respondent of the complaint will be deemed to be the respondent’s address for delivery (BCHRT Rule 18(10)(a)). Without consulting the respondent, the tribunal will determine whether the hearing will be by affidavit, in person, or in any other format, and any dates in relation to the hearing (BCHRT Rule 18(10)(b)). The tribunal may order the respondent to pay the costs incurred by any other participant as a result of the failure to respond within the time allowed; and make any other decision or order the tribunal considers appropriate in the circumstances (BCHRT Rule 18(10)(c)). 7.4 Advise the client and obtain instructions to defend the complaint. Also determine whether facts or any liability will be admitted. 7.5 Examine the complaint form and consider: .1 Whether the respondent is correctly named in the complaint form (although note BCHRT Rule 4(6) regarding technical defects). .2 Whether the complaint discloses (alleges) discrimination contrary to the Human Rights Code. .3 Consequences of not defending the complaint. .4 Whether the tribunal has jurisdiction over the complaint. .5 Whether there is sufficient information to enable the respondent to respond properly. .6 Any admission made by the complainant. .7 What evidence will be required to support and counter the complainant’s allegations, and whether it is available. .8 Any presumptions of law that may work for or against the respondent. 7.6 Consider an early settlement meeting if the tribunal’s letter advises that the complainant is interested in exploring settlement. Note the date for responding. .1 If the respondent advises the tribunal of its interest within the time allowed, and the tribunal has confirmed a date for the settlement meeting, the tribunal may extend the time for the respondent to file a Form 2—Complaint Response and will advise the parties of the maximum length of the extension (BCHRT Rule 18(4) and (5)). 7.7 Consider applying to defer the complaint pending the outcome of another proceeding, under Human Rights Code, s. 25. The application may be made by completing Step 5 of the Form 2—Complaint Response or at any time under BCHRT Rule 16(3) by application to the tribunal using Form 7.1—General Application (BCHRT Rule 28(1)).

If a respondent applies under BCHRT Rule 16(3) to defer a complaint at least 14 days prior to the date the response is due, the time for responding to the complaint is extended to 21 days from the date of the tribunal’s decision denying the application or, if deferral is granted, 21 days from the date the deferral ends (BCHRT Rule 18(6)). 7.8 Consider applying to dismiss the complaint under Human Rights Code, s. 27 or 27.5, or on the basis of the complainant’s refusal to accept a reasonable with prejudice offer to settle the complaint (BCHRT Rule 19(4)). <ol style="list-style-type: none"> .1 The application (Form 7.2—Dismissal Application) must be delivered and filed within the time limited (BCHRT Rule 19(2), (3), and (4)). .2 Consider whether sworn testimony in the form of an affidavit is required to support the application to dismiss. .3 An extension of time may be available by consent or upon application using Form 2—Dismissal Application (BCHRT Rule 19(5)). NOTE: A respondent must comply with BCHRT Rule 20 (Disclosure Requirements) upon filing an application to dismiss the complaint without a hearing (BCHRT Rule 20(3)).
8. PRE-HEARING MATTERS
8.1 Consider the following pre-hearing steps:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> .1 Request for an expedited hearing or alternate process under BCHRT Rule 17. An application (using Form 7.1—General Application; BCHRT Rule 28(1)) must state the reason for the request, a description of the requested changes to the tribunal’s process and timelines, and how granting the request will further the just and timely resolution of the complaint (BCHRT Rule 17(2)). .2 Whether any pre-hearing applications should be made (see item 11).
8.2 Begin to prepare the case, ensuring continuing preparation, review, and reporting (see item 6 of the GENERAL LITIGATION PROCEDURE (E-2) checklist). For example:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> .1 Research the law. Prepare a memorandum of law, including the basis of complaint, defences, possible arguments, remedies, etc. .2 Organize and review documents. Collect all documents from the client and other participants. Ensure that the client understands the scope of disclosure required. Review documents and determine relevance. .3 While conducting the case, periodically assess the adequacy of the research and evidence, and update or modify when required. Consider any possible change in the position of the participants. .4 Report to the client on a regular basis.
8.3 Witnesses and expert evidence (see also item 12 below).

LEGEND — NA = Not applicable L = Lawyer LA = Legal assistant ACTION TO BE CONSIDERED	NA	L	LA	DATE DUE	DATE DONE
.1 List all prospective witnesses and find out whether they are represented by counsel. See BC Code rules 5.3 and 7.2-4 to 7.2-8 with respect to communicating with witnesses who may be represented by counsel or those who are unrepresented. No contact may be made with a witness who is represented by counsel, except through or with the consent of that person’s lawyer. In the opinion of the Ethics Committee, a lawyer must notify an opposing party’s counsel when the lawyer is proposing to contact an opposing party’s expert. For the full opinion, see the Summer 2014 Benchers’ Bulletin, p. 13. .2 Confirm availability of witnesses. Consider who will interview, or attend the interview of, prospective witnesses. .3 Contact each person and attempt to arrange an interview. Prepare for interview, with reference to item 6.9 of the GENERAL LITIGATION PROCEDURE (E-2) checklist. .4 Determine who will appear to give evidence, and prepare witnesses. See item 6.9 of the GENERAL LITIGATION PROCEDURE (E-2) checklist. .5 Determine the need for expert evidence on any issue. Confirm that the expert does not have a conflict. Select and prepare experts, with reference to item 6.10 of the GENERAL LITIGATION PROCEDURE (E-2) checklist, and BCHRT Rule 21. 8.4 Negotiation and settlement. .1 If acting for the complainant, consider whether it is appropriate to settle. Consider all relevant factors relating to liability and remedies. .2 Evaluate the case and determine the minimum settlement you consider acceptable. .3 Interview the client and explain the case in detail, discussing the advantages and disadvantages of settlement. (Encourage compromise or settlement if it is possible to do so on a reasonable basis. Discourage the client from commencing or continuing useless legal proceedings. See BC Code rule 3.2-4.) When you reach agreement, get written instructions. .4 Decide on negotiation strategy. Pursue negotiations, with reference to item 8 of the GENERAL LITIGATION PROCEDURE (E-2) checklist, and BCHRT Rules 14 and 15. See also item 10.
9. COMPLAINT PROCESS
9.1 Disclosure of documents, remedy sought, and witness lists.
.1 Complainant’s document disclosure (BCHRT Rule 20(2) and (4)) (note the confidentiality requirements in Rule 23.1). (a) Within 35 days (BCHRT Rule 20(2)) from the date on which the response is filed, the complainant must: (i) Complete and file Form 9.1—Complainant Document Disclosure, listing all documents in the complainant’s possession or control that may be relevant to the complaint or response to the complaint. (ii) Deliver to any other party a copy of the completed Form 9.1 and each document listed, excluding documents over which privilege is claimed.
