Dear [lawyer's name],

I have a case on breach of divorce contract I am currently living in South Korea and Mr. Franklin Minoru lives in British Columbia. We agreed under this Collaborative Law Agreement for a one time cash settlement of $623,000.00usd plus legal fees to his credit, he has only paid the sum of $122,000.00usd but still owing $501,000.00usd. He is aware of my intention to seek legal actions. The lawyer that helped me with the matter earlier is retired now. I will be pleased to provide further information on this matter on request.

Please send me the retainer and payment information of your firm just in case my ex-husband wants to make the full payment he owes payment without further delays or possible litigation.

I have all necessary document let me know when you need me to forward to you for review. please send me your retainer.

Please I want to hire your firm to help me collect the balance funds from him.

Thank you and have a pleasant day. I am expecting your response

Yours truly,

Ms. Isabella Minoru
