Subject: LITIGATION REFERRAL!!

Importance: High

Dear Colleague,

It is my immense pleasure to refer one of my clients to you for possible representation. The case at hand is a potential litigation matter stemming from a default in payment agreement.

The potential defendant is located in your state and my client is presently exploring the option of retaining legal representation to commence litigation accordingly. It will be a privilege to have you represent my client.

I am presently on vacation with limited access to email. However, your prompt reply will be most appreciated.

Sincerely,

Pamela A. Thatcher
