

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR ALL LAWYERS

Fee for paper subscriptions goes into effect on March 1, 2012

Beginning in 2012, lawyers who wish to be mailed print versions of either the Benchers' Bulletin or Member's Manual updates will be charged a fee as follows:

Benchers' Bulletin (including Insurance Issues): $20 per year

Member's Manual amendments: $30 per year

BOTH Benchers' Bulletin (including Insurance Issues) and Member's Manual amendments: $50 per year

Electronic subscriptions to Benchers' Bulletin and/or Member's Manual amendments will continue to be free for members.

Invoices to be sent to current print subscribers

In mid-January 2012, all print subscribers will receive an invoice based on your publication preferences at that time.

To continue your paper subscription to Benchers' Bulletin and/or Member's Manual updates with no disruption in service, the Law Society must receive payment no later than March 1, 2012. Print subscriptions will not commence until payment has been received.

To switch to an electronic subscription, log in to the Law Society website and change your publication preferences. Changes must be made before March 1, 2012 to avoid charges.

Due to the administrative cost of processing pro-rated subscriptions, print subscriptions that are requested or cancelled after March 1, 2012 will be subject to the full annual billing regardless of when the request or cancellation was made.

If you have any questions, please contact Member Services at 604.605.5311 or memberinfo@lsbc.org.
