

INTRODUCTION

Purpose and currency of checklist. This checklist is designed to be used with the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION, VERIFICATION, AND SOURCE OF MONEY (A-1) and the CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2) checklists. It is designed for counsel representing the creditor. In many instances, the checklist will also assist counsel representing a debtor. See items 6.6 and 8.14 in this checklist for special considerations when representing a debtor. The checklist refers to proceedings in Supreme Court, and unless otherwise indicated, any reference to a “Rule”, “Rules”, or the “SCCR” is to the Supreme Court Civil Rules, B.C. Reg. 168/2009. The basic procedures are similar in the Small Claims Division of the Provincial Court, but you should refer to the Small Claims Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 430, and Small Claims Rules, B.C. Reg. 261/93, and to the Provincial Court Small Claims Handbook (CLEBC, 1997–) for details of the requirements. The checklist is current to September 4, 2024.

Foreign judgments. This checklist includes reference to the registration and enforcement of foreign judgments, notably under the Court Order Enforcement Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 78 (the “COEA”). Counsel representing the holder of a foreign judgment should refer to items marked FJ, and in particular to item 7 of this checklist.

LEGEND

Checkbox

Important Reminder

Deadline or Limitation Date

NEW DEVELOPMENTS

- Supreme Court Civil Rules.
 - Remote commissioning of affidavits. Effective September 9, 2024, affiants may swear or affirm affidavits by video conference (Supreme Court Civil Rules, Rule 22-2(6.1)). The affidavit must state, in its last numbered paragraph, that the person swearing or affirming the affidavit was not physically present before the other person but was before that person by video conference and is considered to have been sworn or affirmed in the presence, and at the location, of the person before whom the affidavit is sworn or affirmed.
 - Applications. Rule 8-1 was amended to: require applicants to provide an additional copy of the notice of application to the registry; provide that an application be removed from the hearing list should the application record not comply with Rule 8-1(15); allow parties to apply for an order granting leave to permit late filing of an application record or reinstate an application to the hearing list; and authorize the application respondent to apply for an order for costs if they attend at the hearing of an application that has been removed from the hearing list.
 - Petitions. Rule 16-1 was amended to require petitioners to provide an additional copy of the filed petition to the registry, and provide that petitions be removed from the hearing list if the petition record does not comply with Rule 16-1(11).
 - Vexatious litigants. Rule 22-9 was amended, authorizing vexatious litigants to apply for leave to file a pleading, application, or other documents.

- Associate judges. Each reference in the Rules to “masters” has been substituted with “associate judges”.
- Gender-neutral language. Gendered language in the Rules was substituted with gender-neutral language effective March 6, 2024.
- Forms of address. The Supreme Court of British Columbia provides instruction on how counsel, litigants, witnesses, and others are to address a justice in a courtroom and provides clarification on how parties and counsel ought to introduce themselves with their preferred pronouns to be used in the proceeding. See Supreme Court Civil Practice Direction PD-64—Form of Address.
- Communicating with the Court. Supreme Court Civil Practice Direction PD-27—Communicating with the Court was updated on February 10, 2023 and sets out the guidelines for appropriate communications with the court for the limited circumstances in which it is permitted.

OF NOTE

- Aboriginal law. Real or personal property of a First Nation or First Nations person (still defined by the Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. I-5 as a “band” or “Indian”) is protected under Indian Act, ss. 89 and 90, if situated on First Nations lands. Typically, such property is not subject to charge, pledge, mortgage, attachment, levy, seizure, distress, or execution in favour of any person other than a First Nations person or First Nation. If the creditor is a First Nations person or First Nation, the Indian Act protections do not apply. Note that a leasehold interest in designated land is not protected, nor is personal property sold under conditional sales agreements: see s. 89(1.1) and (2). In addition to Indian Act considerations, some First Nation entities have entered into treaties or have special land-tenure agreements in place that may affect collection efforts against personal and real property. Also, there may be special agreements in place for individual First Nations persons to opt out of treaties or reserve tenures (for example, in the Treaty 8 area). If collection efforts are to be made against a First Nation or an Indigenous person’s assets on First Nations lands (including funds in a financial institution), consider seeking advice from a lawyer who has experience in Aboriginal law matters. Further information on Aboriginal law issues is available on the “Aboriginal Law” page in the “Practice Areas” section of the Continuing Legal Education Society of British Columbia website (www.cle.bc.ca) and in other CLEBC publications.
- Law Society of British Columbia. For changes to the Law Society Rules and other Law Society updates and issues “of note”, see LAW SOCIETY NOTABLE UPDATES LIST (A-3).
- Additional resources. For further information about collections procedures, see British Columbia Creditors’ Remedies: An Annotated Guide, 2nd ed. (CLEBC, 2020–); British Columbia Personal Property Security Act Practice Manual (CLEBC, 1995–); Practice Before the Registrar (CLEBC, 1992–); Provincial Court Small Claims Handbook (CLEBC, 1997–); Supreme Court Chambers Orders: Annotated, 2nd ed. (CLEBC, 1995–); British Columbia Real Estate Practice Manual, 3rd ed. (CLEBC, 2006–); and the course presentations and papers in Creditors’ Remedies 2020 (CLEBC, 2020); Collections Practice Basics 2021 (CLEBC, 2021), Bankruptcy and Insolvency 2019 (CLEBC, 2019), available in CLEBC’s Courses on Demand.

CONTENTS

1. Initial Contact
2. Initial Interview
3. Follow-up from Initial Interview
4. Commence Proceedings
5. Pre-judgment Garnishment
6. Proceed to Judgment
7. Registration of a Foreign Judgment
8. Enforcement of Judgment
9. Close File

1.	INITIAL CONTACT
1.1	Arrange the initial interview.	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.2	Conduct a conflicts of interest check and complete to the CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2) checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.3	Confirm compliance with Law Society Rules 3-98 to 3-110 for client identification and verification and the source of money for financial transactions, and complete the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION, VERIFICATION, AND SOURCE OF MONEY (A-1) checklist. Consider periodic monitoring requirements (Law Society Rule 3-110). Be aware of Law Society “Fraud Alerts” concerning debt collection scams (available at www.lawsociety.bc.ca) and “Fraud 101 for Lawyers” (Benchers’ Bulletin , Fall 2021). Determine to your satisfaction the legal capacity of the client. Be aware of mortgage company requirements for ID (two pieces of ID required; one must be picture ID).	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.4	Discuss and confirm the terms of your retainer and the basis of your fee. Refer to the CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2) checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.5	Ask the client to bring originals of all documents that evidence the debt, including: invoices, statements of account, promissory notes, guarantees, or other contracts. Also obtain copies of all correspondence between your client and the debtor: demands for payment, settlement letters, and copies of any cheques given by the debtor in payment. Ask for internal memoranda and notes to file, if any.	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.6	Find out when the cause of action arose. Consult the Limitation Act , s. 30 (transition rules) to determine whether the former Limitation Act or the current Act applies to the claim. (Note that the former Act applies to a claim based on an act or omission that took place before June 1, 2013.)
1.7	Diarize relevant dates, such as:	<input type="checkbox"/>

	.1 Limitation period:
	(a) If the current Limitation Act applies, basic two-year limitation period (s. 6), starting from the time that the claim is “discovered” (as set out in s. 8). For “demand” obligations, under s. 14, the claim is “discovered” on the first day that there is a failure to perform the obligation after a demand for performance has been made. Consider whether or not the obligation is a “demand” obligation by reviewing the terms of the credit agreement.
	(b) If the former Limitation Act applies, general six-year limitation period (see s. 3(5) and (6) for actions in debt; for exceptions, see s. 3(4)).
	.2 Ten-year limitation period for action on a judgment for payment of money (Limitation Act , ss. 7 and 11; former Limitation Act , s. 3(3)).
FJ	.3 Ten-year limitation period for registration of a foreign judgment (Court Order Enforcement Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 78 (the “COEA”), s. 29(1)). Ten-year limitation period for registration of extraprovincial Canadian judgments (Enforcement of Canadian Judgments and Decrees Act , S.B.C. 2003, c. 29, s. 5(1)).
1.8	If legal assistants will carry out any steps in the collections process, consider the limits imposed by the Code of Professional Conduct for British Columbia (the “BC Code”), Chapter 6 and Appendix E (Supervision of Paralegals).	<input type="checkbox"/>

2. INITIAL INTERVIEW
2.1	Discuss and confirm your retainer and the basis of your fee. Refer to the CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2) checklist. In the case of a new corporate client, consider obtaining a directors’ resolution confirming the conditions of the retainer and setting out who will give instructions and to whom you will report. If you will act under a “limited scope retainer” (a defined term in the BC Code), ensure that the client understands the nature, extent, and scope of the services that will be provided and the limits and risks associated with the limited services provided. Confirm the understanding, where reasonably possible, in writing.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.2	Determine the client’s objectives. Be aware that criminals posing as clients may attempt to launder proceeds of crime by filing claims using fabricated documents to mispresent transactions or claim an interest in property. Make sufficient inquiries when a client seeks to retain you to assist with the recovery of money in relation to private loans (secured or unsecured), builders lien claims, claims for recovery of an investment, claims for defective goods, claims for an unpaid invoices, or wrongful termination. See BC Code rules 3.2-7 and 3.2-8.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.3	Collect information from the client (consider using a standard form instruction sheet for regular clients):	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Client name (including actual name of legal entity), address, telephone numbers, occupation, age, and contact person.

	.2 For each debtor:
	(a) Name, address, telephone numbers, and name of lawyer, if any. If the debtor has moved recently or shows a post-office box for an address, obtain as much information as possible to assist in locating the debtor or arranging substituted service.
	(b) Age, marital status, spouse’s name, and whether there has been a separation triggering s. 81 of the Family Law Act , S.B.C. 2011, c. 25 (“ FLA ”), which provides for equal division of family property and equal assumption of responsibility for family debt. An order in relation to family debt does not affect an agreement between a spouse and a creditor (FLA , s. 97(3)). Unless the spouses otherwise agree, the provisions of the now-repealed Family Relations Act (the “ FRA ”) apply in regard to proceedings concerning a property division agreement made before the FLA came into force or to proceedings for property division commenced under the FRA .
	(c) Occupation, employer, pay dates (if known).
	(d) Bank.
	(e) Land owned (mortgages, duplicate certificate of title).
	(f) Car.
	(g) Other assets.
	(h) For corporate debtors, do a company search for the business name.
	(i) Consider obtaining a credit report from a credit reporting agency, but note that consent of the debtor must be obtained (see Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act , S.B.C. 2004, c. 2, s. 107).
	(j) Consider the practical issues of enforcement of a judgment. Specifically, are there assets available to satisfy any judgment that may be obtained, or is the debtor insolvent for the purpose of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act , R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3? Refer to the course materials Creditors’ Remedies 2020 (CLEBC, 2020), for options.
	.3 Details of the transaction or events that gave rise to the debt or claim including:
	(a) Nature of the transaction (e.g., promissory note, cheque, credit card, contract, goods sold and delivered, work, and materials).
	(b) All parties involved (e.g., guarantors).
	(c) Where and when the events occurred.
	(d) Details regarding the default, including when the debt was due.
	(e) Amount of the debt presently outstanding, including principal and interest (simple or compounding—if compounding, on what date).
	(f) Whether there was an agreement to pay interest and, if so, whether it was in writing and the rate was agreed upon. If possible, obtain an account history.

	(g) Whether a demand has been made, if so, when, and in what manner. Whether there was any response to the demand.
	(h) Any agreements to postpone payment, not enforce security, or not pursue guarantees. Verify the exact date the debt became due.
	(i) Security for the debt (e.g., guarantee, security agreement, general security agreement). Review for seize-or-sue complications if in respect of consumer goods. Confirm perfection or request particulars of registration and/or notices of same, as may be applicable, including if registered/perfected in the proper jurisdiction, and cure any defaults prior to demand to ensure no intervening bankruptcy occurs to defeat interest.
FJ	.4 For the enforcement of a foreign judgment, determine whether the judgment is from (a) another Canadian province or territory or (b) a reciprocating state.
	(a) If the judgment is from another Canadian province or territory, obtain a certified copy of the judgment from the originating court and have it recognized in British Columbia by filing the certified copy with a requisition for that purpose under the Enforcement of Canadian Judgments and Decrees Act , s. 3. The judgment will then be assigned a B.C. Supreme Court action number for enforcement purposes.
	(b) If it is a judgment from a reciprocating state, determine whether there are any reasons why it might be denied registration, such as service issues. Review Rule 19-3 and the COEA , Part 2. Then obtain a certificate of judgment from the court of originating jurisdiction and details of the foreign judgment, including style of cause, date, court, place, and substance of the judgment. Ensure the judgment is final and conclusive. Obtain details of the method of service in the foreign jurisdiction and whether the defendant entered an appearance to the foreign action. Obtain all other information required under Rule 19-3(3) for the affidavit in support of the application for registration of a reciprocally enforceable judgment.
	.5 Obtain as much other information as possible to assist in execution should the judgment be granted.
2.4	Review documents, checking facts and checking for details such as:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 The proper description of the debtor and the appropriate designation of corporate debtors (e.g., "Ltd.," "Inc.," "Corp.," etc.).
	.2 If a contract was signed by an infant, whether the contract is enforceable or whether there is a guarantor (Infants Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 223, ss. 19 to 21).
	.3 Compliance of interest rates with rate and disclosure laws (Interest Act , R.S.C. 1985, c. I-15; Court Order Interest Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 79; Criminal Code , R.S.C. 1985, c. C-46; Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act).
	.4 Whether an executed contract meets the requirements of the Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act .
	.5 The possible applicability of the law of another jurisdiction.

2.5	Consider and discuss possible defences, including:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Provisions of the Fraudulent Preference Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 164; Fraudulent Conveyance Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 163, or the Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act .
	.2 Common-law defences, such as: no consideration, non est factum , unconscionability, penalty clause, mistake.
	.3 Acceptance of part performance in satisfaction of the obligation (Law and Equity Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 253, s. 43).
	.4 Limitation Act defences: triggering events for enforcement of security. Consider whether or not any defects can be cured through forbearance terms and acknowledgments.
FJ	.5 For enforcement of a foreign judgment, whether conflict of laws rules and principles, and any common law or statutory defences, might apply (e.g., defences to an action on a foreign judgment and to registration of a foreign judgment). Consider whether the judgment is registrable (COEA , and see item 2.3.4 in this checklist). A recognition can be made of a monetary award, or a declaratory or mandatory/injunctive order.
	(a) Where the judgment provides for payment of money and also for other matters, advise the client that it can only be registered under COEA , s. 29(8) for payment of money.
2.6	Consider the relevant facts and law, and give the client a preliminary opinion as to whether there is a cause of action.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.7	Where appropriate, discuss the collection process and the steps you will be taking, the expected time and cost, and any alternatives. Discuss settlement and the risks of litigation. BC Code rule 3.2-4 requires lawyers to encourage compromise or settlement on a reasonable basis where possible. Discuss the provisions of Part 7 of the Business Practices and Consumer Protection Act regarding unreasonable collection practices.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.8	Where there is a security agreement over consumer goods, discuss the seize-or-sue provisions of the Personal Property Security Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 359 or any corresponding legislation in the relevant jurisdiction.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.9	Consider whether to issue a notice of intention to enforce security under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act , s. 244(1).	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Consider whether to appoint an interim receiver under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act , s. 47, to preserve and protect assets pending the expiry of the 10-day notice period under s. 244(2). An order under s. 47 is “interim” only and expires upon appointment of a receiver under s. 243, or expiry of 30 days (s. 47(1)(c)). It is only intended to preserve and protect assets, and not for the operation of any business undertakings.

FJ 2.10	For enforcement of a foreign judgment, consider the client's options:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Suing on the original cause of action.
	.2 Bringing an action on the foreign judgment.
	.3 Applying for registration of the judgment in British Columbia, then having it enforced as a domestic judgment.
FJ 2.11	For a client who is being sued in a foreign jurisdiction, consider carefully the impact of Morguard Investments v. De Savoye , [1990] 3 S.C.R. 1077, Beals v. Saldanha , 2003 SCC 72, and Chevron Corp. v. Yaiguaje , 2015 SCC 42 on registration of a foreign judgment. Consider also the Enforcement of Canadian Judgments and Decrees Act .	<input type="checkbox"/>
	For collections of legal fees see: BC Code , rule 3.3-5: Confidentiality and LSBC Practice Resource "Solicitors' Liens and Charging Orders—Your Fees and Your Clients", July 2013
2.12	If you are not in a position to act, advise the client. Make a record of the advice given, and file your notes. Send a non-engagement letter (for samples, see the Law Society website at www.lawsociety.bc.ca/support-and-resources-for-lawyers/practice-resources/).	<input type="checkbox"/>

3.	AFTER THE INITIAL INTERVIEW
3.1	Confirm your retainer. Refer to the CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2) checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.2	Open file: note relevant dates, including any limitation dates, and place this checklist in the file.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.3	Conduct searches and obtain copies of documents, as required for both the debtor's name—and if there has been a separation under the FLA , or a triggering event under s. 56 of the now-repealed FRA in respect of proceedings concerning a property division agreement made before the Family Law Act came into force (March 18, 2013) or proceedings for property division commenced under the FRA —the debtor's spouse's name.	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Company searches for all corporate parties, checking back to the time when the events giving rise to the action occurred:
	(a) Name.
	(b) Registered and records offices.
	(c) Identity and addresses of directors and officers.
	(d) Good standing.

	.2 Land title search on the debtor’s addresses (PIDs for land title office (“LTO”) searches can be obtained by doing an address search on the BC Assessment website) and any other property the debtor may have an interest in. Search by the debtor’s name to see if there are any other real property holdings.
	(a) Some jurisdictions, such as Alberta, do not allow searches by owner name until after a judgment is obtained. If the debtor might have property in another jurisdiction, consider retaining a local agent to conduct searches and, pending those results, consider commencing action where exigible assets are located.
	.3 Credit Bureau or court registry searches for other actions. Credit Bureau searches of individuals may only be done pre-judgment if consent is given.
	.4 Office of the Superintendent of Bankruptcy (“OSB”) (an agency of Innovation, Science and Economic Development Canada). If proceedings have been commenced, an automatic stay will apply to all other actions, subject to leave of the court. OSB searches also now disclose proceedings under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act , R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36. If an “initial order” has been pronounced in such proceedings, review the order as to any stay of proceedings.
	(a) If an assignment or a notice of intention to file a proposal has been filed, contact the trustee and obtain a creditor’s package, then file proof of claim. (Consider whether to seek leave to bring or continue an action, such as if insurance proceeds are available, or whether you should be claiming as an unsecured creditor in the estate.)
	(b) If there is a potential trust claim, special rules apply to claim a right in property, with specific timing requirements. You may wish to consult a lawyer who is familiar with insolvency.
	.5 Personal property registry. Ensure all security is properly perfected before demanding or taking any steps to enforce.
	.6 Bank search, if the client has account particulars. You must have an arrangement with a bank to conduct such inquiries.
	.7 Note that you can no longer conduct a name search at the Vehicle Records Department of ICBC before obtaining judgment.
FJ	.8 With respect to enforcement of a foreign judgment, obtain a certified copy of the foreign judgment under the seal of the foreign court (see item 7.1.3 in this checklist). If you will be applying without notice for registration, unless it is a Canadian judgment being registered under the Enforcement of Canadian Judgments and Decrees Act , you must also obtain a Schedule 2 certificate (see item 7.1.4 in this checklist).
3.4	Collect and verify facts.	<input type="checkbox"/>

3.5	Determine whether there is an arbitration agreement in the contract or if there are any conditions precedent to action, such as: contractual conditions precedent, need for consent to sue, assignment of cause of action, giving of notice, demand being made in writing, notice under the Farm Debt Mediation Act , S.C. 1997, c. 21, if applicable. Ensure that any conditions are met. If the contract contains an arbitration agreement, consider consulting with an expert in arbitration proceedings.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.6	Send demand letters to the debtor, if the client did not and has instructed you to do so. Consider time to be given to meet demand and reasonableness of that, including requirement of at least 10 days if also giving notice of intention to enforce security under s. 244 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act , and such other notice that may be required including under the Farm Debt Mediation Act . If the debtor has not retained counsel, urge the party in writing to get independent legal representation. Make it clear that you are not protecting their interests and that you are acting exclusively in the interests of your client (see BC Code , rule 7.2-9). Note particular addresses for delivery/notice in the debt instruments, which may differ from the business/residential addresses, or in the case of a corporation, the registered and records office. In such cases, the prudent course is to deliver demands to both addresses. Diarize the expiry date. Include notice that all necessary credit bureau and other searches will be conducted. Consider taking immediate legal action, without a demand letter, if circumstances warrant. If making a demand, consider the limits imposed by BC Code , rule 7.2-4 (which prohibits communication in a manner that is abusive, offensive, or otherwise inconsistent with the proper tone of a professional communication from a lawyer); rules 7.2-6, 7.2-6.1, and 7.2-8 (which prohibit approaching a represented person without the opposing counsel's consent); and rule 3.2-5 (which prohibits threatening criminal or disciplinary proceedings for the collateral purpose of obtaining a benefit for the client).
3.7	If necessary, discuss the desirability of hiring a skip tracer with your client.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.8	Discuss settlement with the debtor. Confirm instructions in writing before agreeing to a settlement. Consider any settlement on forbearance terms, and implications of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act to ensure that full indebtedness can be claimed in a bankruptcy should settlement terms not be met.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.9	Take steps to realize on any security. Consider seize or sue difficulties. Review the terms of the security agreement and consider any relevant provincial or federal legislation (e.g., Personal Property Security Act) before seizing collateral. Consider notice requirements under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act , s. 244.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.10	If filing a builders lien, refer to the BUILDERS LIEN PROCEDURE (E-6) checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.11	Where the debtor is already subject to judgment enforcement under a writ of execution, consider making a claim under the Creditor Assistance Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 83, s. 6.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3.12	Conduct historical land title searches of any property addresses that have been affiliated with the debtor to determine if there have been any potential fraudulent conveyances of properties.	<input type="checkbox"/>

4. COMMENCE PROCEEDINGS
	(See also the GENERAL LITIGATION PROCEDURE (E-2) checklist; for the enforcement of foreign judgments, see item 7 in this checklist.)
4.1	If the client does not wish to commence a legal proceeding immediately upon the expiry of the demand, send the client a letter explaining the basis for your calculation of any limitation period and advise that they should instruct you to proceed at least one month prior to the expiry of the limitation period if they wish to pursue their claim at a later date. Explain any other risks associated with delayed enforcement (e.g., bankruptcy, etc.).
4.2	Determine all possible causes of action; consider whether evidence will be available to support them. Determine who will be the defendants and identify them correctly. Include all those jointly or jointly and severally liable. Consider Law and Equity Act , s. 53. Determine whether there is a claim that could survive bankruptcy because it arises from fraud or defalcation. Consider the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act , s. 178.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.3	Decide in which court to bring action, considering monetary and geographic limitations—consider Small Claims Division of Provincial Court, the monetary limit of which is now $35,000 (B.C. Reg. 120/2017). Consider the effect of Rules 9-1(7) and 14-1(10) of the Supreme Court Civil Rules, B.C. Reg. 168/2009. If the action is to be commenced in Supreme Court, consider whether to proceed by way of Rule 15-1 (Fast Track Litigation).	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.4	Consider possible actions under the Fraudulent Conveyance Act or the Fraudulent Preference Act , and tracing remedies.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.5	Consider possible interim measures, including:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 pre-judgment garnishment (see item 5 in this checklist);
	.2 a claim for recovery of goods pending the outcome of the action (Law and Equity Act , s. 57);
	.3 enforcement of security under the Personal Property Security Act ;
	.4 appointment of a receiver either under security, or the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act , or the Law and Equity Act (note Supreme Court Civil Practice Direction PD-47 —Model Orders provides model forms of orders including preservation of assets and receiverships);
	.5 a Mareva or other injunction (Rule 10-4); or
	.6 where client is a mortgagee or debenture holder, an order for sale pursuant to Rule 13-5(2) (to be considered in conjunction with foreclosure remedies under Rule 21-7, and required process for recovery under a mortgage, including venue rules in s. 21 of the Law and Equity Act).

4.6	Draft and file notice of civil claim in Form 1. If the debt action is for less than $100,000, under Rule 15-1 any party may file a notice of fast track litigation in Form 61, in which case all subsequent pleadings must contain the words “Subject to Rule 15-1” below the parties’ names. Where service outside British Columbia is required, consider whether it can be effected without leave of the court and, if so, include an endorsement in Form 11 (Rule 4-5(1) and (2)). Consider the provisions of the Currency Act , R.S.C. 1985, c. C-52, but see also the Foreign Money Claims Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 155, if the debt is not in Canadian currency.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.7	When drafting the notice of civil claim, review any land title searches to ensure the names of the defendants match the names on any property, using “aka” names if necessary. This will ensure that if judgment is obtained, there will be no issue at the LTO registering the judgment against the property under the COEA . Also, consider pre-judgment garnishing rules (set out at item 5 in this checklist); express liquidated damage claims as specified and ascertainable, to ensure that available remedies include default judgment for damages claimed, and pre-judgment garnishment.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.8	Note the expiry date of the notice of civil claim in diary and “BF” systems for renewal of civil claim, if required.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.9	Serve documents:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Comply with requirements of service (in general, see Rules 4-1 to 4-6). Consider special service requirements such as for corporations (Rule 4-3(2)(b) and Business Corporations Act , S.B.C. 2002, c. 57, s. 9), unincorporated associations (Rule 4-3(2)(c)), and partnerships (Rule 20-1(2)). If unable to locate a debtor, consider the use of a skip tracer (birthdate of the debtor may be helpful to the skip tracer, which can often be obtained from a personal property registry search).
	.2 If service cannot be effected under Rule 4-3 as required for a notice of civil claim, make application by desk order under Rule 4-4 for alternative service. Include affidavit evidence in support, to show that the party cannot be found despite a diligent search, or is evading service. If there has been communication by e-mail, consider whether or not substituted service by e-mail is appropriate. Alternative service by way of advertisement must be by way of an advertisement in Form 10. Serve a notice of civil claim with a copy of the order (or published advertisement), and file an affidavit of service in court. Note: the Rules do not contain a specific requirement for proof of service, nor a form of affidavit for alternative service. However, consider adapting the affidavit of personal service for this purpose (see Rule 4-6 and Form 15).
	.3 If service outside British Columbia is required, determine whether leave of court is required and, if so, make an application (can also be done by desk order under Rule 8-4 and serve accordingly (see Rule 4-5)).
4.10	Note the limitation date for filing a “response to civil claim” (Form 2) in diary and “BF” systems (21 days from anywhere in Canada, 35 days from the United States, 49 days from elsewhere: pursuant to Rule 3-3(3)). For service outside British Columbia, see also Rule 4-5.

4.11	Before taking default steps against a party who is represented by counsel, ensure that counsel has been warned of your intention to take such steps (see BC Code , rule 7.2-1 and commentary [5]). If the debtor fails to enter a response to civil claim, apply for default judgment after confirming instructions (Rule 3-8). File:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Proof of service of notice of civil claim, and proof that the defendant has failed to serve a response.
	.2 Requisition endorsed by registrar that no response has been filed.
	.3 Draft default judgment (Form 8), including interest calculation pursuant to either an agreement to pay or the Court Order Interest Act .
	.4 Bill of costs (Form 63). Note, if the amount of default judgment is under the Small Claims limit of $35,000, only disbursements are recoverable.
	.5 If applying for a pre-judgment garnishing order, the notice of civil claim must frame the action as a liquidated debt claim, which the Supreme Court Civil Rules define as “specified and ascertainable”, and thus should include a description of how the amount of the claim was calculated (e.g., hourly rates, number of hours worked, disbursements, taxes) and that the parties specifically agreed to those amounts or rates.
4.12	Review the response to civil claim and consider:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Whether the defence is sound in law. Otherwise consider an application to strike (Rule 9-5).
	.2 Whether there are scandalous, vexatious, or embarrassing allegations. If so, consider an application to strike (Rule 9-5).
	.3 Any admissions made by the debtor.
	.4 What evidence will be needed to support the debtor’s allegations, and whether it is available.
	.5 Discuss merits with the client; discuss the cost of proceeding, compared to anticipated amount of judgment.
4.13	If the response to notice of civil claim raises new facts that call for response, consider filing a reply (Rule 3-6).	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.14	If a counterclaim is filed, seek instructions regarding a response to counterclaim in Form 4. Diarize and ensure compliance with relevant time limits for filing a response to counterclaim.	<input type="checkbox"/>

5.	PRE-JUDGMENT GARNISHMENT
5.1	Obtain pre-judgment garnishing orders to attach debts owing or accruing due to the debtor (COEA , Part 1):	<input type="checkbox"/>

	.1 Advise the client that the funds in court may be subject to claims of other creditors, and discuss the impact of any intervening bankruptcy if those funds are not paid out of court before a bankruptcy.
	.2 Ensure that a notice of civil claim has been filed before proceeding (COEA , s. 3(2)(d)(i) and 3(3)). If you expect to obtain default judgment, consider not serving the notice of civil claim until you have served the garnishing order and received notice of payment in. Then serve the notice of civil claim and garnishing order on the debtor. Be careful not to violate COEA , s. 9(2) and (3).
	.3 Review the law as to what kind of debt is attachable before judgment (e.g., not wages, until they have been paid directly into a bank account).
	.4 Ensure that client's claim is for a liquidated amount, as pre-judgment garnishment is not available for an unliquidated claim. For service agreements, review terms to determine if liquidated, and include terms in the notice of civil claim to be attached to an affidavit in support.
	.5 Draft order, ensuring that it does not attempt to garnish a joint bank account or other joint property unless all co-owners are defendants.
	.6 Draft affidavit(s), ensuring strict observance of the essentials set out in COEA , s. 3(2)(d) or s. 3(3). Avoid using standard forms. If possible, get affidavit sworn by client on personal knowledge. A solicitor's affidavit appears to be satisfactory practice (though, solicitors who swear affidavits put themselves at risk of cross examination and/or production of their file including communications with the client). For rules on garnishment, see British Columbia Creditors' Remedies: An Annotated Guide , 2nd ed. (CLEBC, 2020).
	.7 Apply without notice under Rule 8-4, submitting a requisition in Form 17 (see Supreme Court Civil Practice Direction PD-10 —Garnishing Orders), draft order for signature, and affidavit in support.
	.8 Consider how the garnishee must be served (e.g., if a bank, must serve the branch where the account is located; if a credit union, must be head office). Ensure the garnishee's name is spelled correctly (see Schedule 1 of the Bank Act , S.C. 1991, c. 46). Serve order on garnishee and diarize for possible follow-up. A separate order must be obtained for each garnishee.
	.9 Serve order on the defendants or obtain an order for substituted service (COEA , s. 9(5)).
	.10 If you do not hear from the garnishee or get a notice of payment in from the court registry, contact the garnishee. If necessary, apply to court for a garnishing order absolute (COEA , s. 11).
	.11 If you receive a letter from the garnishee stating that no debts are due, consider the need to obtain a formal dispute note (COEA , s. 16).
	.12 If the garnishee disputes liability but the garnishee's dispute appears open to challenge, prepare for and participate in the show-cause hearing (COEA , ss. 16 to 19).

	.13 If possible, obtain written consent from the debtor for payment out of court before judgment. File this with application form and obtain payment out (COEA , s. 13(4)).
--	---	--

6. PROCEED TO JUDGMENT
	(Refer also to the GENERAL LITIGATION PROCEDURE (E-2) checklist.)
	Note: Even if notice of fast-track litigation has been filed under Rule 15-1, any party may apply for summary judgment or summary trial without a case planning conference being heard (Rule 15-1(8)(c)).
6.1	If the debtor’s pleadings disclose no defence, consider applying to strike the defence (Rule 9-5), or for summary judgment (Rule 9-6), and obtain instructions.	<input type="checkbox"/>
6.2	Consider whether a summary trial would be appropriate (Rule 9-7), and obtain instructions.	<input type="checkbox"/>
6.3	Prepare case. (See the GENERAL LITIGATION PROCEDURE (E-2) checklist.)	<input type="checkbox"/>
6.4	Discuss settlement with the debtor. If settling for less than the full debt, consider what should happen if there is default in meeting the terms of the Settlement (i.e., will the full debt still be owing, such that settlement is a forbearance from pursuing the full amount owing?). Confirm instructions in writing before agreeing to a settlement. Consider getting:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Post-dated cheques.
	.2 Signed, unfiled consent orders, in blank, to be filed in case of default. However, consider carefully the form of consent arrangements, in light of decisions and commentaries on Law and Equity Act , s. 58, regarding the prohibition against using a warrant of attorney; it may be that a consent order can no longer be held as ongoing security.
	.3 Interest.
	.4 Mutual release.
6.5	Obtain judgment.	<input type="checkbox"/>
6.6	If acting for a debtor, consider:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Whether it is possible to act for a reduced fee, or on a pro bono basis. Explain any limits to the retainer. If unable to act beyond giving summary advice, refer the debtor to private debtor agencies or to a trustee in bankruptcy. Note the “short-term summary legal services” rules in the BC Code regarding pro bono services: rules 3.4-11.1 to 3.4-11.4 and commentaries, regarding conflicts and confidentiality.
	.2 Whether other creditors may be making claims against the debtor. If so, assess the debtor’s complete financial circumstances.

	.3 Whether there are common-law or statutory defences to the creditor's claim, or whether there are common-law or statutory counterclaims that may be asserted against the creditor.
	.4 Whether the amount claimed by the creditor is correct. Review all records, and demand full account documentation from the creditor, if necessary.
	.5 Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act remedies, including assignment in bankruptcy, notice of intention to make a proposal (or perhaps the proposal itself), and the benefits of each, including the stay of proceedings that will result.
	.6 Remedies under the Farm Debt Mediation Act , if the property is a commercial agricultural operation.
	.7 Whether the debtor is requesting advice or assistance that may contravene the Fraudulent Conveyance Act or the Fraudulent Preference Act . A lawyer must not engage in any activity that the lawyer knows or ought to know assists in or encourages any dishonesty, crime, or fraud. See BC Code rules 2.1-1(a), 3.2-7, and 3.2-8. Also see Abakhan & Associates Inc. v. Braydon Investments Ltd. , 2009 BCCA 521, leave to appeal refused 2010 CanLII 34795 (S.C.C.).

7.	REGISTRATION OF A FOREIGN JUDGMENT (FJ)
7.1	Apply to Supreme Court. If applying under the Enforcement of Canadian Judgments and Decrees Act , attach a certified copy of the judgment to a requisition. No other documents are required. In other cases, file documents as follows:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Petition (Rule 19-3(2)) or requisition (Rules 19-3 and 17-1).
	.2 Affidavit meeting the requirements of Rule 19-3(3).
	.3 Certified copy of the judgment under the seal of the foreign court, exhibited to the affidavit (Rule 19-3(3)(a)(i)).
	.4 If applying without notice for reciprocal enforcement under COEA , s. 29(2), also file a Schedule 2 certificate from the foreign court (COEA , s. 29(3) and (4)).
7.2	Apply without notice, if the criteria set out in the COEA , s. 29(2) are satisfied; otherwise give notice to the judgment debtor as required by the Supreme Court Civil Rules or as the judge considers sufficient (COEA , s. 29(5)). See also Rule 19-3.	<input type="checkbox"/>
7.3	Have costs assessed and get certificate endorsed on the order for registration (COEA , s. 33(c)).	<input type="checkbox"/>
7.4	Register the foreign judgment by filing with the court registry. Either file a requisition and proceed as per item 7.1 in this checklist, or proceed under the COEA and file these materials:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 The B.C. Supreme Court order (in Form 77);
	.2 An exemplification or certified copy of the foreign judgment; and
	.3 A translation, if the judgment is not in English (COEA , s. 32).

7.5	If the application for registration was made without notice:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Serve notice on the judgment debtor as required by COEA , s. 34(1) and Rule 19-3(6). It must be served within one month, if registered without notice.
	.2 Diarize the one-month limitation period during which no sale or other disposition of the debtor's property can be made (COEA , s. 33(a)).

8.	ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENT
8.1	Discuss options listed below with the client, and obtain instructions.	<input type="checkbox"/>
8.2	Consider an agreement to suspend enforcement proceedings in exchange for a personal guarantee (in the case of a corporate debtor) or a payment schedule. Consider provision for the payment of interest. Consider application of Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act and forbearance agreements, rather than forgiveness of any debt in a settlement.	<input type="checkbox"/>
8.3	Send a demand letter with a copy of the order, advising the judgment debtor that execution proceedings will be taken if the judgment is not satisfied by a specified date. Consider calculating and including a demand for a daily rate of judgment interest, due under the Court Order Interest Act . Diarize.	<input type="checkbox"/>
8.4	Examination in aid of execution (Rule 13-4).	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Decide whom you want to examine:
	(a) Debtor.
	(b) Officer or director of a corporate debtor (Rule 13-4(3)). If necessary, use Rule 7-2(5)(b) to find out the appropriate person to examine.
	(c) Other person, where you can show that they have knowledge (Rule 13-4(5)). Court order is necessary.
	.2 Obtain an appointment from the court reporter, ensuring that examination is in the registry closest to where the debtor resides. Diarize examination date.
	.3 Serve appointment in Form 23. Daily witness fees must also be served on any witness other than a party or a present officer, director, or partner of a party, plus conduct money (mileage of $0.30 per km for travel between eight and 200 km, and airfare if more), at least two clear days before the examination (Appendix C, Schedule 3 of the Supreme Court Civil Rules). The appointment can be served on the debtor's lawyer (Rule 7-2(13)). If you want to examine a person in more than one capacity (e.g., personally and as a director), indicate this on the appointment, or serve two separate appointments indicating the different capacities.
	.4 Send a copy of the appointment to a court reporter, to confirm the date.
	.5 Review any credit reports obtained from credit reporting agencies.

	.6 Prepare questions. Ensure that they are within the scope of Rule 13-4(2). Refer to the COLLECTIONS—EXAMINATION IN AID OF EXECUTION (E-5) CHECKLIST. Be sure to ask for copies of relevant financial records, tax returns, etc.
	.7 If the debtor does not appear at the examination after half an hour:
	(a) Have the court reporter endorse a certificate of non-appearance on the back of the appointment (Rule 22-4(6)).
	(b) Apply for a court order pursuant to Rule 13-4(6) by filing and serving a notice of application and affidavit. Serve the order, and if the debtor still does not appear, apply for committal for contempt (Rule 22-8).
	.8 Order an examination transcript and diarize to check for receipt.
	.9 Review the transcript and consider whether you need to examine any other person.
	.10 If necessary, apply for leave to re-examine the same person before the one-year limitation period expires (Rule 13-4(4)).
8.5	Use a subpoena to debtor (Rule 13-3). Be aware that if you choose this route, other means of execution may not be available while the debtor is complying with any payment plan ordered, and the right to cross-examine for financial information is more limited than an examination in aid of execution.	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Obtain an appointment from the registry by telephone, and diarize.
	.2 Prepare and file a subpoena in Form 56, with a copy of the judgment attached, and an affidavit showing that the order is not satisfied and that there is no outstanding writ of execution (Rule 13-3(1)). If you want to examine a person in more than one capacity (e.g., personally and as a director), indicate this or serve two separate subpoenas indicating the different capacities.
	.3 Serve the subpoena personally on the debtor at least seven clear days before the hearing date, together with conduct money and witness fees (Rule 13-3(3) and see Appendix C, Schedule 3).
	.4 Prepare questions. Use the COLLECTIONS—EXAMINATION IN AID OF EXECUTION (E-5) CHECKLIST as a guideline, but ensure that questions are confined to the financial matters set out in Rule 13-3(4). Ensure that you include questions about the debtor's expenses and liabilities, as well as income and assets.
	.5 Decide whether it is desirable to seek leave to call witnesses (Rule 13-3(6)) and, if so, prepare witnesses (see BC Code , ss.5.3 and 5.4)
	.6 Attend the hearing. Ensure that you have the affidavit of service. If the debtor does not appear, seek a report in Form 57, pursuant to Rule 13-3(8)(a) and (e)(i). If the debtor refuses to be sworn, produce documents, or give satisfactory answers, seek a report in Form 57 (Rule 13-3(8)(b) and (e)). If the debtor has unreasonably refused to pay, as set out in Rule 13-3(10), consider requesting a report or an order for committal. If further documents are needed, seek an order for production of specific documents and an adjournment of the subpoena hearing.

	.7 Ask the registrar to make an order for payment either in full or in installments over time. Prepare the order for the registrar's signature and file it; send a copy to the debtor.
	.8 If you have a report in Form 57, consider seeking an order for committal (see item 8.13 in this checklist).
8.6	Garnishing order:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Refer in general to the procedure set out in items 5.1.4 to 5.1.12 in this checklist. Garnishment is a remedy to enforce any order for the payment of money.
	.2 If attaching wages:
	(a) Collect information about pay periods. Diarize for issue of garnishing orders.
	(b) Prepare a master garnishing order.
	(c) Fill in details on separate orders, and serve them on the employer at appropriate times.
	(d) Affidavit in support cannot be sworn more than seven days before the wages become due. If the first garnishing order is successful, write to the debtor to ask if the debtor will consent to a direction to pay, to avoid paying further legal costs in respect of each order.
	.3 Consider attachment of other debts (e.g., bank accounts, term deposits, RRSPs, sale proceeds).
	.4 Consider applying for variation of an exemption (COEA , ss. 3 and 4).
	.5 If a debtor gets an installment order, consider applying for variation (COEA , s. 5(3)).
	.6 Apply for payment out (COEA , s. 13):
	(a) By filing the application and written consent of the debtor in standard form.
	(b) By judgment by default—three months after money has been paid into court, file an affidavit of service of the garnishing order, a copy of the default judgment, and an application.
	(c) By serving notice of intention to apply for payment out, together with a copy of each garnishing order (personally or by substituted service: COEA , ss. 9(5) and 13(2)), waiting 10 days and checking to ensure that no notice of intention to dispute has been filed, then filing the affidavit of service of the notice and orders, a copy of the judgment, and the application.
	(d) If a dispute is filed, by application to court.
8.7	Register judgment in the LTO against land in which the debtor has an interest (even a beneficial interest, such as a leasehold interest: see COEA , s. 86(9)):	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Conduct searches (including name searches) with BC Online for all British Columbia LTOs.

	.2 Obtain and file certificate of judgment. Ensure that the debtor's name matches that shown on certificate of title, or you may be required to make a statutory declaration regarding identity. Ensure that the interest of the judgment debtor is properly described.
	.3 Obtain a copy of the certificate of title showing the judgment. In particular, check whether a certificate of pending litigation is registered before your judgment. Check also for the duplicate certificate of title.
	.4 Diarize the two-year expiry date, and advise the client to do the same.
	.5 Consider checking from time to time to see whether the debtor has acquired more real property.
	.6 Consider whether the best strategy is to await foreclosure proceedings of prior charge holders or to bring proceedings to realize on the judgment under the COEA (the choice may affect the priority of the judgment and whether it ranks pari-passu with other judgment holders).
	.7 Consider obtaining value information to determine the equity available in property. Sources include realtor comparative market analysis, formal appraisal, or Landcor Data valuation (available from BC Online). Consider requests for balances owing on any prior encumbrances.
8.8	Execution proceedings against real property:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Pursuant to COEA , ss. 92 to 116:
	(a) Once the judgment is registered against land, prepare a notice of application and an affidavit for an order to show cause why the real property should not be sold to satisfy the judgment, and, if no cause is shown, for a reference to the registrar. The notice of application and affidavit should exhibit copies of the judgment and certificate of title. Consider the relevance of the home of the debtor provision in COEA , s. 96(2), and the exemption provisions in COEA , s. 71(1) and Court Order Enforcement Exemption Regulation, B.C. Reg. 28/98, s. 3.
	(b) Prepare certificate of pending litigation (Land Title Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 250, s. 215), to prevent any transfers of the land.
	(c) Send material to the court registry for issuing. Diarize the hearing date.
	(d) File a certificate of pending litigation in LTO (Land Title Act , s. 215).
	(e) Serve the debtor with notice of application and affidavit.
	(f) Attend in chambers and obtain an order for a reference to the registrar regarding matters in COEA , s. 94(1).
	(g) Take out an appointment and file an affidavit setting out the interests held by the judgment debtor and exhibiting the certificate of title and an affidavit from the client setting out amount owing. Diarize the appointment. Note that under Rule 23-6(3.1), a bound hearing record must be filed in advance of the hearing.

	(h) Serve the debtor and consider mailing to or serving other parties who are registered on title subsequent to your judgment (COEA , s. 94(4)).
	(i) Attend hearing and get the report.
	(j) Apply to court for confirmation of the report and for an order directing the court bailiff to sell the land or to list the property with a real estate licensee (and varying the advertising requirements, if required). Serve any interested parties. In the alternative, if foreclosure proceedings are brought by a mortgagee, seek, or wait for another creditor to obtain, an order for sale in those proceedings. Note: the court bailiff may require an appraisal.
	(k) After the sale, obtain payout in accordance with the order and COEA , s. 111.
	(l) If the judgment is satisfied without sale of the property, file an acknowledgment of payment and release the certificate of pending litigation.
	.2 In a foreclosure proceeding by a mortgagee, refer to the FORECLOSURE PROCEDURE (E-1) CHECKLIST.
	.3 Pursuant to Rule 13-5, consider sale of property (refer to the Rule for procedure).
8.9	Execution proceedings against goods (COEA , ss. 47 to 80).	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Try to ascertain whether the debtor has goods eligible for seizure pursuant to the COEA that are worth more than the exemptions that may be claimed by the debtor.
	.2 Ensure you do not violate any relevant seize-or sue-provisions, particularly when dealing with consumer goods.
	.3 Prepare a writ of seizure and sale, and send it, together with a copy of the judgment, to the registry for issuing.
	.4 Ensure that the court bailiff has the writ, fees, full information including motor vehicle searches, lien searches, etc., and, if required, a security deposit. The court bailiff will require poundage (COEA , s. 113, and Rules, Appendix C, Schedule 2) and money to cover costs.
	.5 If you are offered a settlement, ensure that it includes the court bailiff's poundage, and confirm instructions to settle in writing.
8.10	Execution proceedings against shares, pursuant to COEA , ss. 63.1, 64.1, and 65.1, and the Securities Transfer Act , S.B.C. 2007, c. 10, ss. 45 to 51. Consider the effect of any restrictions on transfer of shares. (Refer to the procedure set out in item 8.9 in this checklist.)	<input type="checkbox"/>
8.11	Execution proceedings against money and securities for money, pursuant to COEA , s. 58. (Refer to the procedure set out in item 8.9 in this checklist.)	<input type="checkbox"/>
8.12	Equitable execution (charging order or equitable receiver), where legal execution is ineffective (Law and Equity Act , s. 39 and Rule 13-2(5) and (7)).	<input type="checkbox"/>

8.13	Order for committal of the debtor:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Apply where:
	(a) You have a report in Form 57 (see item 8.5.6).
	(b) The debtor has failed to obey an order of the examiner (Rule 13-3(10) to (16)).
	.2 Diarize the one-year expiry date of committal order.
	.3 Enforce by delivering the order and costs of incarceration to sheriff.
8.14	If acting for a debtor, consider alternative remedies set out in item 6.6 in this checklist, and also consider:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Whether a default judgment or other steps in default can be set aside.
	.2 Where the debtor has not had contact with the creditor or creditor's counsel, communicating immediately to explain debtor's circumstances and to explore settlement possibilities.
	.3 Urgent matters, such as making the exemption claims under the COEA and Court Order Enforcement Exemption Regulation, s. 2, within two days of any seizure by the court bailiff. Examine other exemption possibilities, such as under Insurance Act , S.B.C. 2012, c. 1, ss. 65 and 124, and the Indian Act , R.S.C. 1985, c. I-5.
	.4 If settlement is not possible with the judgment creditor, canvass alternate remedies such as court application for installment payment order, or remedies under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act . However, note that there are both disadvantages and advantages to proceeding under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act , including limitations on the ability to withdraw a petition for a bankruptcy order, even if the debt is paid. If considering bankruptcy remedies, advice from a lawyer practicing specifically in insolvency matters should be sought.

9.	CLOSE FILE
9.1	Prepare a reporting letter and account as soon as practicable after closing. Remind the client of relevant limitation periods and expiry dates.	<input type="checkbox"/>
9.2	Close the file. See the CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2) checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>