

Land Title and Survey Authority of British Columbia

Creating value in the public interest

LTSA is a non-governmental, self-funded organization responsible for operating BC's land title and survey systems and other land-related registries.

LTSA creates value by supporting security and certainty of title through efficient registration of land title interests and survey records and by providing access to reliable land information.

For LTSA, maintaining the trust and confidence of stakeholders and customers is paramount and is supported through an open and accountable governance structure.

Since its creation 21 years ago, LTSA has focused on delivering efficient and accurate systems, continuing to expand online services and regularly introducing system improvements to meet customer needs.

Recognized as one of BC's Top Employers for 8 consecutive years (2019 – 2026)

By the Numbers

LTSA processed over 6.7 million transactions in 25/26 including land title search and filings.

Over 98% of land title applications were processed online, resulting in efficient and accurate registrations.

LTSA submitted $36.8 million as a portion of fee revenue to the Province from transactions processed in the fiscal year.

LTSA has reinvested 127% of earned operating income since 2005 in capital projects improving land title and survey systems in BC.

96% of customers rated their overall experience with LTSA as good, very good or excellent.
