

INTRODUCTION

Purpose and currency of checklist. This checklist is designed to be used with the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION, VERIFICATION, AND SOURCE OF MONEY (A-1), CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2), and the PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION INTERVIEW (G-4) checklists. It is written primarily from the perspective of a lawyer acting for an executor or administrator. The checklist is current to September 4, 2025.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS

- Probate forms. Forms under Part 25 of the Supreme Court Civil Rules, B.C. Reg. 168/2009 have undergone several updates. Ensure you are using the latest versions of the forms.

OF NOTE

- Probate rules. Part 25 of the Supreme Court Civil Rules includes forms and procedures for all estate proceedings, both contested and uncontested. References in this checklist to “Rules” are to the Supreme Court Civil Rules, unless otherwise specified.
- Aboriginal law. Special considerations apply to wills made by Indigenous persons. The Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. I-5 applies to wills made by First Nations persons who ordinarily reside on First Nations land and to their estate. The Minister of Indigenous Services has broad powers over testamentary matters and causes (Indian Act, ss. 42 to 50.1). Sections 45 and 46 of the Indian Act govern the formalities of execution of a will. Also see the Indian Estates Regulations, C.R.C., c. 954, s. 15. The Minister may accept a document as a will even if it does not comply with provincial laws of general application. It is good practice, however, to ensure that a will or testamentary document governed by the Indian Act is executed in the presence of two witnesses, with those witnesses signing after the will-maker in the will-maker’s presence.

A will governed by the Indian Act is of no legal effect unless the Minister accepts it, and property of the deceased cannot be disposed of without approval (Indian Act, s. 45(2) and (3)). The Minister also has the power to void a will, in whole or in part, under certain circumstances (Indian Act, s. 46(1)(a)-(f)). If part or all of a will is declared void, intestacy provisions in the Indian Act will apply (Indian Act, ss. 46(2) and 48). Should an executor named in a will be deceased, refuse to act, or be incapable of acting, a new executor can be appointed by the Minister (Indian Act, s. 43; Indian Estates Regulations, s. 11). The Minister has similar powers in intestacy situations. A provincial probate court may be permitted to exercise jurisdiction if the Minister consents in writing (Indian Act, ss. 44 and 45(3)). The Minister is also vested with exclusive jurisdiction over the estates of Indigenous persons with mental and/or physical incapacity (Indian Act, s. 51).

The Family Homes on Reserves and Matrimonial Interests or Rights Act, S.C. 2013, c. 20, came into force; ss. 1 to 11 and 53 came into force on December 16, 2013. This federal legislation applies to married and common-law spouses living on First Nations land where at least one spouse is a First Nations person. Sections 13 to 52 apply to First Nations who have not enacted their own matrimonial real property laws. Sections 14 and 34 to 40 pertain to the consequences of the death of a spouse or common-law partner.

Other statutory restrictions may apply to estates governed by the Indian Act. For example, a person who is “not entitled to reside on a reserve” (still defined as “reserve” under the Indian Act) may not acquire rights to possess or occupy land on that First Nation under a will or on intestacy (Indian Act, s. 50), and no person may acquire certain cultural artifacts situated on First Nations land without written consent of the Minister (Indian Act, s. 91). As some First Nations have entered into treaties (e.g., the Nisga’a Final Agreement Act, S.B.C. 1999, c. 2, and the Tsawwassen First Nation Final Agreement Act, S.B.C. 2007, c. 39) that may have governance, property, and other related implications, consider the status of an Indigenous person instructing on a will and that of the First Nation in which a deceased was a member.

WESA, Part 2, Division 3 allows for the intervention of the Nisga’a Lisims Government and treaty First Nations where the will of a Nisga’a or treaty First Nation citizen disposes of cultural property.

Further information on Aboriginal law issues is available on the “Aboriginal Law” page in the “Practice Areas” section of the CLEBC website (www.cle.bc.ca) and in other CLEBC publications. If acting with respect to will or estate governed by the Indian Act, consider seeking advice from a lawyer with experience in Aboriginal law matters.

7. Closing the File

1. INITIAL CONTACT
1.1	Conduct a conflicts of interest check. Refer to the CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2) checklist. Conflict provisions specific to wills and estates are found in the Code of Professional Conduct for British Columbia (the “BC Code”), rules 3.4-37 to 3.4-39. Also consider BC Code , rules 3.4-26.1 to 3.4-26.2.	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.2	Arrange the initial interview, using the PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION INTERVIEW (G-4) checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.3	Confirm compliance with Law Society Rules 3-98 to 3-110 for client identification and verification and the source of money for financial transactions, and complete the CLIENT IDENTIFICATION, VERIFICATION, AND SOURCE OF MONEY (A-1) checklist. Consider periodic monitoring requirements (Law Society Rule 3-110). Unless authorized in writing by the client to make a full disclosure to the court, it may be necessary to withdraw from the administration of an estate if the assets represent the proceeds of crime.	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.4	Ask the client to bring to the initial interview all available documents respecting the estate. Where information is not available, consider how it will be obtained. Consider what identification documents may be required by financial institutions for the purposes of the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act , S.C. 2000, c. 5.	<input type="checkbox"/>
1.5	Discuss and confirm the terms of your retainer and the calculation of your fee. Refer to the CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2) checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>

2. PRELIMINARY CONSIDERATIONS
2.1	If the executor wants to renounce probate, see item 6.1 in this checklist. Where the executor is a U.S. resident or citizen, recommend to the executor that they seek U.S. tax advice before the executor accepts the appointment. If the executor is a non-resident of Canada (U.S. or otherwise), and if there is Canadian real property to be sold within the estate, consider the potential requirement for non-resident withholding tax on sale proceeds, as well as the impact that may have on the administration of the estate.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.2	If the executor is a corporation outside British Columbia and not doing business in British Columbia, and it wishes to take out a grant or re-seal in B.C. in its own name, obtain a business authorization or an exemption under the Financial Institutions Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 141.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.2A	Prepare and have the client sign authorizations to obtain information regarding bank and investment accounts.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.3	Where the original will or codicil has been lost or destroyed, or is not available, consider applying for an order to prove a copy (see item 6.5.5 in this checklist).	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.4	If the will is an electronic will, determine the original electronic form of the will (PDF or other) and whether the will is maintained in a third-party electronic repository. If the original electronic form was not PDF, determine whether the original electronic form was locked to prevent editing, and whether the original electronic form was edited after	<input type="checkbox"/> the date the will was signed and witnessed (Rule 25-3(3)(a.1) of the Supreme Court Civil Rules , B.C. Reg. 168/2009). If the electronic will was not first saved as a PDF, or is maintained in a third-party electronic repository, prepare an affidavit in form P45.

2.5	Prepare other affidavits as required, with respect to:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Rule 25-3(22) and (23). Note: under Rule 25-3(23.1), a fee agreement referred to in a will is not required to be filed with the application.
	.2 Alterations or interlineations in the will or codicil (Rule 25-3(20) and (22)).
	.3 Erasures or obliterations in the will or codicil (Rule 25-3(21) and (22)).
	.4 Lack of an attestation clause or doubt as to due execution of the will or codicil:
	(a) Affidavit of execution from one or more of the subscribing witnesses (Rule 25-3(15)).
	(b) Affidavit of execution from any other person present at the execution or, if such an affidavit cannot be obtained, an affidavit stating that fact, and dealing with the handwriting of the deceased and the subscribing witnesses and any circumstances that may raise a presumption in favour of proper execution (Rule 25-3(16)).
	.5 Will signed by the will-maker in the attestation or testimonium clause (Wills, Estates and Succession Act , S.B.C. 2009, c. 13 (the “WESA”), s. 39).
	.6 Blind or illiterate or non-English speaking will-maker, or will signed by another person or by the will-maker by a mark, with an attestation clause that fails to state that the will was read over to the will-maker and they appeared to understand its contents (Rule 25-3(18)).
	.7 Proof of the date of execution of the will (Rule 25-3(22)).
	.8 Proof of death where the date of death is unknown.
	.9 Removed staples (if it is apparent that staples had been removed, even if re-stapled, the probate registry will likely require an affidavit addressing this).
2.6	If the client receives a citation or wants to issue a citation or notice of dispute, refer to items 6.2 and 6.4 in this checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.7	If you want to gather information about the will or estate by way of subpoena or court order, refer to item 6.3 in this checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.8	Obtain valuation of assets:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Consider use for purposes such as:
	(a) Preparing the disclosure statement required by statute and the Rules, and the calculation of probate taxes.
	(b) Determining capital gains and losses for income tax purposes where there is a deemed disposition at fair market value on death and where valuation-day appraisals are required.

	(c) Determining foreign death taxes where foreign assets are involved.
	(d) Assisting in determining questions arising in estate administration (e.g., buy-sell agreements, sale or distribution of assets, insurance against fire and other perils, determination of option prices).
	.2 Discuss with the client the desirability of employing a professional appraiser where the amount of tax is significant, where expert valuation is required to preserve equality between beneficiaries, or to establish the asking price on a sale. Discuss methods of determining value and the executor's obligation to disclose (though not to adopt) appraisals.
	.3 Obtain written confirmations regarding bank accounts, insurance, pensions, annuities, stocks, bonds, unclaimed property held by BC Unclaimed, etc., including accrued interest to the date of death.
2.9	Prepare inventory of assets and liabilities:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Prepare inventory.
	.2 Use inventory in:
	(a) Preparing a disclosure statement to be exhibited in the probate application and for calculation of probate fees (see item 2.10 in this checklist).
	(b) Preparing income tax returns.
	(c) Transmitting, dividing, distributing, or selling assets.
	(d) Preparing accounts for approval or passing.
	(e) Assisting in determining executor's remuneration.
	(f) Reviewing any wills variation actions.
2.10	Prepare a disclosure statement required to be exhibited to any application for a grant (Rule 25-3(2)).	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Refer to the inventory of assets and liabilities (see item 2.9).
	.2 In general, include all real and personal property passing to the deceased's personal representative on their death (Rule 25-3). Certain types of property are not included (see item 2.5 of the PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION INTERVIEW (G-4) checklist).
	.3 Ensure that the form and content comply with Rule 25-3 and Forms P10 and P11.
2.11	Give notice of the application for a grant (consider WESA , Part 6, Divisions 3 and 11 and Rule 25-2):	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Prepare notice in Form P1.
	.2 Mail, email or deliver the notice, together with a copy of the will, to each of the following:
	(a) Beneficiaries under the will (including contingent beneficiaries).

	(b) Persons entitled on an intestacy or a partial intestacy, including any spouse as defined under WESA , s. 2. If there is any doubt as to whether a person has become or remains a spouse, notice should be given. Notice must be given to all persons who would have been entitled on an intestacy, even if there is a will and no apparent intestacy, partial or whole.
	(c) Persons entitled to apply to vary the will under WESA , s. 60.
	(d) Any living person who is named as executor or alternate executor and has a prior or equal right to apply as compared to the applicant.
	.3 If emailing the P1 notice and will to a person entitled to such notice, it is a requirement that said person responds in writing to confirm receipt of such notice. Until such written confirmation is received, “delivery” of such notice has not been completed.
	.4 Special situations:
	(a) Where a person entitled to notice is dead, notice must be delivered to the personal representative of the deceased, if known (Rule 25-2(12)).
	(b) Where a person entitled to notice cannot be found, apply to the registrar for an order dispensing with notice (WESA , s. 121, and Rule 25-2(14)). Note that affidavit evidence of the circumstances (e.g., efforts made to locate a person whose whereabouts are unknown) must be provided.
	(c) Where a person entitled to notice is a minor, mail or deliver a notice to their parent or guardian (unless that person is the applicant) and to the Public Guardian and Trustee. See WESA , s. 182. See also Rule 25-2(8).
	(d) Where a person entitled to notice is, or may be, mentally incompetent, mail or deliver a notice to the Public Guardian and Trustee (Rule 25-2(11)). If a committee, or an equivalent guardian in another jurisdiction, has been appointed, deliver the notice to the committee or guardian (Rule 25-2(10) and (11)) in addition to the Public Guardian and Trustee. If no committee or equivalent guardian has been appointed for the person, deliver the notice to the person and to the Public Guardian and Trustee (Rule 25-2(11)(c)). If you know that the person has another “nominee” appointed for them as defined in WESA , being an attorney, a representative, or a person appointed under s. 51(2) of the Indian Act or the Minister of Indigenous Services, the notice should also be given to the nominee (WESA , s. 181).
	(e) Where a notice is required to be mailed or delivered to the Public Guardian and Trustee, ensure that it contains a list of names and the last known addresses of persons entitled to receive notice, and that it is accompanied by copies of all documents filed with the court in respect of the application. Notice must include birthdates of any minors as well as the applicable fee. See Rule 25-2(13).
	(f) Where the will was an electronic will, the recipients of the P1 notice will be entitled on demand using Form P46 to receive or access the will in its original electronic form.

	.4 Note and diarize the first date on which application materials may be filed, being at least 21 days after delivery of all notices (Rule 25-2(1)).
2.12	Obtain any required consents to a grant of administration:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 From all persons with an equal or prior right to apply. The order of priority is set out in WESA , s. 130.
	.2 From the committee appointed under the Patients Property Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 349, on behalf of a person who is mentally incompetent.
	.3 From the Public Guardian and Trustee, where you intend to ask the court for a grant to the guardians of an infant for the infant's use and benefit (Rule 25-15(1)).
2.13	Consider whether the client is bondable. A bond is not required unless an interested party applies to the court and obtains an order requiring security (WESA , s. 128).	<input type="checkbox"/>
2.14	If a caveat or notice of dispute has been filed, or if you want to file one, see item 6.4 in this checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>

3.	SIMPLE APPLICATIONS
	(See item 5 in this checklist for contentious applications and see item 6 in this checklist for special considerations.)
3.1	For grants of probate:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Determine whether a special form of probate is appropriate (see item 6.5 in this checklist).
	.2 Bring an application in the Supreme Court (Rule 25-3) (such applications will not ordinarily be spoken to in chambers, but processed by way of "desk order").
	.3 Prepare and file the following documents (in special probate cases refer to special requirements set out in item 6.5):
	(a) Requisition (Rule 25-3(2) and Form P2).
	(b) Certificate of will search (Rule 25-3(2)).
	(c) Affidavit of executor and disclosure statement exhibited thereto (Rule 25-3(2), Forms P3 or P4, P8 if applicable, P9 and P10. Note that P10 (the affidavit of assets and liabilities) may be filed subsequent to the filing of other documents).
	(d) Affidavit(s) of deemed renunciation, if any (Rule 25-3(2) and Form P17 or P34, as applicable).

	(e) Original will and any codicils (Rule 25-3(3)) exhibited to the affidavit of executor. Do not staple the will to the affidavit of executor. An electronic will that was a PDF in its original form and was not kept in a third-party electronic repository must be electronically filed with the probate registry in its original form. Two additional photocopies of the original will are required to be submitted as well.
	(f) Testamentary documents believed to be invalid or irrelevant (Rule 25-3(14.1)) must be attached as an exhibit to the affidavit of executor.
	(g) Affidavit proving delivery of the notices required under Rule 25-2 (Form P9).
	(h) Order dispensing with delivery of notice, if required (see Rule 25-2(12)(b) and (14)).
	(i) Affidavit of execution of the will, if required.
	(j) Written comments of the Public Guardian and Trustee, if required (see Rule 25-2(13) and WESA , s. 124).
	(k) Order pursuant to WESA , s. 124(1)(b), if grant is to be issued before the Public Guardian and Trustee has given written comments.
	(l) Probate fees. Pay filing fee of $200. Probate fees are payable when the grant is ready and are calculated on the real and tangible personal property in the estate situated in British Columbia, and the intangible personal property (wherever located) of a deceased ordinarily resident in B.C. immediately prior to death, as follows: $6 for each $1,000 of value between $25,000 and $50,000, plus an additional $14 for each $1,000 that value is above $50,000. If the value of the estate is less than $25,000, no probate tax is payable (see Probate Fee Act , S.B.C. 1999, c. 4, s. 2).
	(m) Note the requirement to file supplemental affidavits where further assets or liabilities are determined, or where values are determined to be other than previously disclosed (Rule 25-3(9)).
	.4 Issuance of the grant:
	(a) The grant should be issued if the documents are acceptable and there are no unusual aspects.
	(b) Probate fees must be paid before receiving the grant. Most banks upon request will issue a bank draft payable to Minister of Finance from funds in the deceased's account for payment of probate fees.
	(c) Registry practice is to keep the original grant in the court file and to issue court certified copies. A fee of $40 applies for each certified copy (additional fees apply if more than 10 pages).
3.2	For grants of administration:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 See item 2.6 of the PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION INTERVIEW (G-4) checklist regarding entitlement to apply.

	.2 Determine the appropriate type of application. See item 6.6 in this checklist for types of applications.
	.3 Bring an application in the Supreme Court (such applications will not ordinarily be spoken to in chambers, but processed by way of “desk order”). Note that associate judges have jurisdiction (see Rule 25-3).
	.4 Prepare and file the following documents (see item 6.6 in this checklist for special requirements for different types of administration):
	(a) Requisition (Rule 25-3(2) and Form P2).
	(b) Certificate of will search (Rule 25-3(2)).
	(c) Affidavit of administrator and disclosure statement exhibited thereto (Rule 25-3(2), Forms P5, P8 (if applicable), P9, and P10. Form P10 (the affidavit of assets and liabilities) may be filed subsequent to the filing of other documents).
	(d) Testamentary documents believed to be invalid or irrelevant (Rule 25-3(14.1)) are required to be attached as an exhibit to the affidavit of administrator.
	(e) Affidavit(s) of deemed Renunciation and/or consents, if required (Rule 25-3(2)).
	(f) Consents of creditors, if required.
	(g) Order.
	(h) Pay filing fee of $200 and arrange for prospective payment of probate fees (see item 3.1.3(k) in this checklist).
	(i) Note the requirement to file supplemental affidavits where further assets or liabilities are determined, or where values are determined to be other than previously disclosed (Rule 25-3(9)).
	(j) Written comments of the Public Guardian and Trustee, if required (WESA , s. 124).
	.5 Issuance of grant:
	(a) The matter will not have to be spoken to if there are no unrepresented minor or mentally incapable beneficiaries, no one has made application to the court for an order requiring security, and any consents required under WESA , s. 130 have been obtained.
	(b) In all other cases, the matter will have to be spoken to. Serve documents, ensuring compliance with Rule 4-3. Where the registrar directs that notice be given to any non-consenting person pursuant to Rules 25-4 and 25-9, diarize the time, mail the notice to non-consenting persons, search for responses on expiry of the limitation period, prepare and file an affidavit of mailing, and set the matter down for hearing.

	.6 Security:
	(a) Before applying for a grant, consider whether a bond is likely to be required (consider WESA , s. 128), and if so, find out whether the client is bondable.
	(b) Obtain and enter the order showing the amount of the bond, if required.
	(c) Prepare and apply for the bond (Rule 25-14(1)(j), (k), and (l)). Ensure that the bond is executed by the administrator and the sureties.
	(d) File the bond with the registry, by way of requisition.
	(e) If the administrator is unable to obtain a bond, apply to have the order varied to allow for some other form of security.

4.	AFTER OBTAINING THE GRANT
4.1	Provide a copy of the grant to the client. In this checklist, “estate grant” may refer to the grant of probate or grant of administration, as applicable.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.2	Where the surviving spouse of a deceased person gives notice of their intention to conceive a child using the deceased’s human reproductive material (ova, sperm or embryos) within 180 days from the issuance of the estate grant, advise that the resulting child or children will likely impact the administration of the estate (the child or children will inherit from the deceased as if they were born during the lifetime of the deceased, and if the will does not provide for them, they (by their guardian or the Public Guardian and Trustee) may bring a wills variation claim. The child or children must be born within 2 years (or longer by court order) of the deceased’s death and survive for 5 days (WESA, s. 8.1). Accordingly, recommend additional restraint in distributing the estate, and consider whether any of the estate can be distributed prior to the anticipated birth(s) (with an appropriate holdback) or whether the administration should be held in abeyance entirely until the birth(s) occur.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.3	Advise regarding transmission, management, and distribution of property, including:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Advise that where notice of an application for a grant has been provided to the Public Guardian and Trustee (see item 2.11.3 in this checklist), a copy of the estate grant or resealed probate must be mailed or delivered to the Public Guardian and Trustee within 45 days of the grant or reseat (WESA , s. 124(2)).
	.2 In the case of probate, advise of the general restriction on distributing any part of the estate in the 210 days following the date the grant of probate is issued (WESA , s. 155). Consider s. 155(1.1) to (1.3) for exceptions to this general restriction; including, but not limited to, by court order; with consent of all beneficiaries and all persons who may commence a proceeding with respect to the variation of the will; or with consent of all intestate successors entitled to a share of the estate. Note that the estate cannot be distributed while a proceeding is pending (WESA , s. 155). The limitation period for commencing a proceeding will be 180 days from the date that grant of probate issues (WESA , ss. 61 and 146). Once the limitation period has expired, it may be prudent to check Court Services Online, or all court registries, to see whether a notice of civil claim has been filed but not served. Service of such notice of civil claim is required no later than 30 days after the expiration of the 180-day period referenced above, but this can be extended on application to the court.

	.3 Advise against final distribution prior to receipt of a clearance certificate from the Canada Revenue Agency (Income Tax Act , R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Supp.), s. 159(2) and (3)).
	.4 If there are non-resident beneficiaries, and more than 50% of the fair market value of the estate was derived from Canadian real property, advise on the requirements to withhold 25% of distributions until either the non-resident beneficiary or the personal representative has obtained a certificate of compliance (Income Tax Act , ss. 115 and 116). Recommend that the client obtain tax advice, if appropriate.
	.5 Consider whether a notice to creditors and others should be published pursuant to WESA , s. 154.
	.6 If an insolvent estate of a person is being administered, advise of the distribution priorities set out in WESA , ss. 169 to 174. See also the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act , R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, s. 136.
	.7 If there are proceedings relating to division of family assets or property under the Family Law Act , S.B.C. 2011, c. 25 (or the former Family Relations Act , R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 128), consider getting instructions from the court regarding distribution (see item 2.5.5 of the PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION INTERVIEW (G-4) checklist).
	.8 Regarding creditors, advise:
	(a) That creditors must be dealt with before distribution to beneficiaries.
	(b) Of the right to compromise claims either under the will or under WESA , s. 142.
	(c) Of the procedure for rejecting or disputing a claim (WESA , s. 146).
	(d) Of the limitations for actions for loss suffered as a result of the fault of the deceased (WESA , s. 154(4)).
	.9 Advise of the procedure and documents required to transfer various types of assets into the name of the surviving joint tenant, the executor, or the administrator, and then to transfer to the beneficiaries where appropriate. Consider who should bear the cost.
4.4	Prepare documents for transfer, if so instructed.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4.5	Advise the client in writing of steps that should be taken regarding taxation matters. Specify who—you, the client, or the client’s accountant—is to perform each step:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Obtain income tax clearance certificate(s) (to date of death and/or to final distribution) (see item 4.3.3 in this checklist).

	.2 Obligation to file tax returns (Income Tax Act , s. 150(1)).
	.3 Calculation of income for the year of death, including variations in deductions, exemptions, elections, and other methods for spreading income over several returns.
	.4 Taxation of gains on capital property realized on death (Income Tax Act , s. 70(5)).
	.5 Special treatment with respect to certain property, such as a property rolling over to a spouse or spousal trust, rollover of farm or fishing property, lifetime capital gains exemption for shares of a qualified small business corporation, the principal residence exemption, and taxation of RRSP and RRIF proceeds.
	.6 Steps to deal with private corporation shares owned on death to avoid double taxation. Certain tax planning options are only available within specified time periods. Notably, loss carry-back planning under s. 164(6) of the Income Tax Act must be completed within one year of death.
	.7 Claiming credits for estate donations to registered charities and other qualified donees, including optimizing use of credits and amending prior year tax returns, as applicable.
	.8 Obligation to file trust returns for income earned by the estate or by any testamentary trusts subsequent to death.
	.9 Obligations to withhold or obtain clearance when distributions are made to non-resident beneficiaries.
	.10 Advisability of consulting a tax specialist.
4.6	Advise regarding remuneration of an executor or administrator:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Source of entitlement: instrument, contract, or statute (Trustee Act , s. 88).
	.2 Quantum: pursuant to instrument, contract, or statute (Trustee Act , s. 88); considerations in fixing the amount, and availability of a “care and management fee”.
	.3 Indemnification for out-of-pocket expenses properly and reasonably incurred. Advise on potential impact (loss) on Graduated Rate Estate (GRE) status if contributions/loans to the estate by the executor or others are not paid back within 12 months.
	.4 Apportionment of remuneration where there is more than one executor or more than one trust.
	.5 Lack of statutory authority for executor to “pre-take” remuneration in anticipation of approval, if not permitted under will or contract.
	.6 Where not all beneficiaries are willing and or able (because of a legal disability) to approve proposed compensation, make application for a formal passing of accounts and the fixing of compensation (see item 4.7 in this checklist).
4.7	Advise regarding the passing of accounts, including:	<input type="checkbox"/>

	.1 Content of the accounts in accordance with Rule 25-13, such as:
	(a) Original assets on hand at death.
	(b) Capital receipts and disbursements.
	(c) Income receipts and disbursements.
	(d) Reconciliation of items (a) to (c), including a statement of assets on hand at the date of the accounts.
	(e) Statement of distribution.
	(f) Compliance with Rule 18-1(15) and (16).
	.2 Obligation to pass accounts and the fact that the executor may be compelled to do so (Trustee Act , s. 99).
	.3 Where appropriate (e.g., all beneficiaries are mentally competent adults), follow the informal procedure for approval of accounts: send the accounts signed by the executor, with a release and an indemnity, to unpaid specific legatees and residual beneficiaries. Failing approval by all beneficiaries, a formal passing of accounts is required.
	.4 Where formal passing of accounts is required, see the procedure under Rule 25-14 to make an application.
4.8	Obtain discharge:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Informal discharge (where no administration bond has been filed): obtain beneficiaries' approval of accounts and their execution of a release and indemnity, a clearance certificate regarding income taxes, and, if applicable, undertaking notice to creditor procedure under WESA , s. 154. Advise the client to obtain a release from any person who may have had rights under Part 5 of either the former Family Relations Act or the Family Law Act . See item 2.5.5 of the PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION INTERVIEW (G-4) checklist.
	.2 Formal discharge (WESA , ss. 157 to 161):
	(a) Where a beneficiary is missing or their residence is unknown, apply for an order authorizing distribution of the estate and payment of the person's share into court (Trustee Act , ss. 39 and 40).
	(b) Apply without notice with a supporting affidavit. If a bond was posted as security, ensure that the notice of motion includes a request that the bond be cancelled. Also, where appropriate, apply for the discharged executor to be replaced by a new personal representative.
	(c) A discharge can be applied for on an application for confirmation of the registrar's report, where distribution is to be made immediately after the passing of the accounts, and where the releases state that the beneficiaries have received their shares of the estate. Ensure that the requisition (or notice of application) and order are modified accordingly.

	.3 Advise of the effect of discharge (WESA , s. 157(5) and (6)).

5. CONTENTIOUS APPLICATIONS
5.1	Refer to item 2.6 of the PROBATE AND ADMINISTRATION INTERVIEW (G-4) checklist regarding entitlement to apply.	<input type="checkbox"/>
5.2	Refer in general to the Rules regarding actions commenced by notice of civil claim. Note that Rules 25-10 through 25-12 and 25-14 address contentious probate matters.	<input type="checkbox"/>
5.3	.1 If there has been an application for estate grant, consider applying for orders with a notice of application in the probate file (Rule 25-14(1)). If there has not been an application for estate grant, consider applying for orders with a petition (Rule 25-14(1.1)).	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.2 Ensure that the pleadings contain a statement of the interest of each party in the estate. Ensure that, where the validity of a testamentary document is questioned, you have included as respondents all persons having an interest in upholding or disputing the validity of the will, including intestate heirs, persons who qualify or may qualify as spouses under s. 2 of WESA , persons entitled under earlier testamentary instruments, etc. (Rule 25-14(5)).	<input type="checkbox"/>
5.4	Note that a person interested in the estate, but not named as a respondent in the notice of application or petition, may defend the action by leave of the court (Rule 25-14(5) and (6)).	<input type="checkbox"/>
5.5	Where an applicant/petitioner is propounding a will, a respondent's responding pleading may state that they merely require proof in solemn form and will only cross-examine the witnesses produced in support of the will. They will then not be liable for costs unless the court finds no reasonable ground for requiring proof in solemn form (Rule 25-15(4)).	<input type="checkbox"/>
5.6	Note that Rule 3-8 (regarding default of pleadings) is restricted in its application (Rule 25-5(7)) for applications/petitions seeking a revocation of an estate grant.	<input type="checkbox"/>
5.7	Regarding security, refer to item 3.2.6 in this checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>

6. SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS
6.1	Renunciation	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Use Form P17 if no citation to apply for a grant of probate has been served, and file together with the documents required to be filed for an application for a grant (Rule 25-1(4)(b)).
	.2 If a citation to apply for grant of probate has been served, complete Form P33 to indicate the executor's refusal to apply for a grant of probate, and serve it on the citor. Include an accessible address for service (Rule 25-11(5)(b)).

6.2	Citations and subpoenas:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	Refer to Rule 25-11 and Form P31.
	.1 To the executor, to accept or refuse probate, or to show cause why administration should not be granted to the person issuing the citation or to some other person having a prior right who is willing to accept the grant:
	(a) May be done where an executor fails to apply for probate (Rule 25-11(1)).
	(b) Prepare citation in Form P32 (Rule 25-11(1)).
	(c) A person served has 14 days to respond. That person is deemed to have renounced the executorship of the estate (Rule 25-11(5) and WESA , s. 105) if that person fails:
	(i) to file the documents as required in Rule 25-11(4)(b)(i) and (ii);
	(ii) to serve an answer in Form P33 refusing to apply for probate; or
	(iii) to obtain a grant of probate within six months after service of the citation.
	.2 To the executor and any other person named to propound a document as a will may be done by any interested person who is aware that a document alleged to be a will exists (Rule 25-11(1); Form P32).
	.3 To any person to bring in a testamentary document to the registrar or to state under oath that no testamentary document is in the person's possession or control; see Rule 25-12 and WESA , s. 123:
	(a) May be done where a testamentary document may be in a person's possession or control.
	(b) Prepare a requisition for a subpoena and supporting affidavit (Rule 25-12(2); Form P35).
	.4 To the executor, or a defendant who has a grant under their control, to bring in a grant (Rule 25-12(1); see item 6.8 in this checklist regarding revocation of a grant).
	.5 In the event that the person served under Rule 25-11(1) is deemed to have renounced the executorship, the citor or any person interested in the estate may apply (Rule 25-11(6)) for:
	(a) grant of probate or grant of administration with will annexed;
	(b) an order under WESA , s. 58 curing any deficiencies in the testamentary document;
	(c) an order that the testamentary document is proved in solemn form; and
	(d) the issuance of a subpoena if the testamentary document is in the possession of the cited person.
	.6 If the person served renounces executorship, the citor may swear an affidavit of deemed renunciation in Form P34 (Rule 25-11(7)).

6.3	Subpoenas and orders to assist in gathering information about the will or estate (Rule 25-12):	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Obtain subpoena from the registrar (Rule 25-12(2)):
	(a) Satisfy the registrar, on affidavit evidence, that the person in question has knowledge of a will, or other document, or any asset relating to the estate.
	(b) Prepare and submit a requisition for subpoena in Form P35, subpoena in Form P37, and above-noted affidavit evidence in support of the request.
	.2 Satisfy the registrar that (Rule 25-12(3)):
	(a) the document is required for the purpose of an application under Rule 25-12; and
	(b) a person has failed to deliver the document sought.
	.3 Serve the Form P37 subpoena issued by the registrar (Rule 25-12(4)).
	.4 If document is still not produced, apply to the court (Rule 25-12(6)) to issue a warrant in Form P36 for apprehension of the person served, with proof that:
	(a) the subpoena was served;
	(b) the documents are required for an application under Rule 25-12; and
	(c) the documents were not provided within the time period endorsed by the registrar in Form P35.
6.4	Caveats:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 File notice of dispute in Form P29, if intending to oppose:
	(a) issuance of an estate grant,
	(b) an authorization to obtain estate information,
	(c) an authorization to obtain resealing information, or
	(d) the resealing of a foreign grant.
	.2 Cite Rule 25-10(4) and (5) regarding amendment to notice of dispute.
	.3 Diarize one-year limitation period (Rule 25-10(12)(a)).
	.4 Apply for renewal before expiry of the notice of dispute, or demonstrate reasons for not applying before the notice ceased to be in effect (Rule 25-10(6)).
	.5 If appropriate, apply for an order in Form P31 from the court to remove the notice of dispute.
6.5	Special grants of probate; requisition should indicate the type of grant sought:	<input type="checkbox"/>

	.1 Where an executor has renounced or predeceased the will-maker, or the appointment of the executor is void due to spousal separation under WESA, s. 56, ensure that the affidavit of the applicant under Rule 25-3(2) refers to the renunciation or death of the executor.
	.2 Where more than one executor is appointed and one wants to prove the will without the consent or renunciation of the other(s), reserving the right of the other(s) to apply for a grant (i.e., double probate), ensure that the affidavit of the proving executor reflects this fact (see Rule 25-14(4)).
	.3 Where a non-proving executor subsequently wants to apply for double probate, prepare and file a requisition and an affidavit of executor to which a disclosure statement and a copy of the original grant are exhibited. See Rule 25-14.
	.4 Where there is an executor according to the tenor of the will, ensure that the affidavit of the proving executor is modified and the requisition indicates the type of application. The matter may need to be spoken to and an order entered before the issuance of a grant.
	.5 Where an original will or codicil has been lost, destroyed, or is not available, consider making an application for an order to prove a copy. In this case, ensure that the affidavit of the proving executor sets out evidence rebutting the presumption of revocation is included. An affidavit as to due execution by a subscribing witness may be required. The matter may need to be spoken to, the court may order that notice be given, and it is possible that the grant will be limited until the original or a more authentic copy can be found.
	.6 If an electronic will was originally saved in a format other than PDF, a physical copy or PDF copy of the original must be filed and this fact disclosed in the P4 affidavit.
	.7 Where an original will is not available because it is retained by a foreign court or official, ensure that a court-certified copy is attached and that the affidavit of the proving executor indicates this and explains why the original is not attached. It is possible that the matter will have to be spoken to.
	.8 Where the original will is a Quebec notarial will, a copy certified by a Quebec notary or prothonotary as a true copy of the original will may be filed in place of the original will (Evidence Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 124, s. 36).
	.9 Where the sole executor was an infant and administration with the will annexed was granted to some other person, and the infant has now attained the age of majority, prepare and file an affidavit of executor and a disclosure statement exhibited thereto, including a reference to the previous grant, a requisition, the affidavit regarding notice under WESA, s. 121 and Rule 25-2, and an application for revocation of the existing grant. See also Rule 25-14.
	.10 Where there are duplicate original wills, file both wills with the registry, exhibited as “A” and “A1”. This may have to be spoken to, and you will need an affidavit concerning the circumstances of the execution of the wills.

6.6	Special kinds of administration:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	.1 Administration of a small estate. Note that the small estates procedure set out in Part 6, Division 2 of WESA have not been and are not expected to be proclaimed in force. Refer to “Small Estates” in chapter 6 (Applications for Administration without Will Annexed) in the British Columbia Probate and Estate Administration Practice Manual , 2nd ed. (CLEBC, 2007–) for information on informal procedures for dealing with small estates.
	.2 Administration pending legal proceedings. Apply for the appointment of an administrator pending legal proceedings under WESA , s. 103 and Rule 25-14(1)(q).
	.3 Administration by an attorney. Where the person entitled to administration resides outside British Columbia and does not wish to take out administration in British Columbia, application must be made under WESA , s. 139.
	.4 Administration of unadministered estate where the executor dies leaving part of the estate unadministered. Apply for an order under Rule 25-14(1)(d). In the event of death of the personal representative, application to be substituted as personal representative subject to the court’s directions is authorized by Rule 25-14(1.2).
	.5 Administration in special circumstances. Apply for an order under Rule 25-14. In the absence of an application for estate grant, application by petition for specified orders is authorized by Rule 25-14(1.1).
6.7	Foreign grants:	<input type="checkbox"/>
	(See Rules 25-6, 25-7, 25-8, and 25-9.)
	.1 Determine whether the grant can be resealed in British Columbia (WESA , s. 138(1)). Foreign grants of probate or administration in another province or territory in Canada or in another prescribed jurisdiction can be resealed in British Columbia. Under s. 3 of the Wills, Estates and Succession Regulation , B.C. Reg. 148/2013, the prescribed jurisdictions are: any member of the British Commonwealth of Nations, any of the states of the United States of America, and Hong Kong.
	.2 If the grant can be resealed in British Columbia, apply for resealing (see Rule 25-6):
	(a) See Rule 25-2 in respect of how to deliver notice for resealing of foreign grant.
	(b) Rule 25-5 explains the application procedure in respect of correction, amendment, revocation, and authorization to obtain information in respect of a resealed foreign grant.
	.3 If the grant cannot be resealed in British Columbia, consider whether to:
	(a) Apply for a grant of administration or probate appointing the attorney of the personal representative appointed by the foreign court (WESA , s. 139).

	(b) Apply for an ancillary grant of administration or probate appointing the personal representative appointed by the foreign court (WESA , s. 138(4)).
6.8	Revocation of grant	<input type="checkbox"/>
	(See WESA , s. 141, and Rule 25-5(5).)
	.1 Advise the client of the effects of revocation (WESA , s. 137).

7.	CLOSING THE FILE
7.1	Prepare a reporting letter and account as soon as practicable after closing. In the reporting letter, confirm the execution and location of all planning documents, recommend a periodic review, and confirm that your engagement is complete.	<input type="checkbox"/>
7.2	Close the file. See CLIENT FILE OPENING AND CLOSING (A-2) checklist.	<input type="checkbox"/>
