

Demanding on Threat of Prosecution

CHARLES OWEN SPETTIGUE

Vancouver, B.C.

Called to the bar: June 14, 1985

On July 24, 1986 the member wrote a letter on behalf of his client wherein he demanded the return of an automobile to his client to avoid a prosecution being launched against the person refusing to return the automobile. The member admitted that his conduct violated Part E, Ruling 5 of the Professional Conduct Handbook and constituted professional misconduct.

Discipline Digest — 1988: No. 2 October (Spettigue)